

shall direct the removal and decent interment of any remains that he may deem it advisable to require to be interred ; and shall report to the Police Magistrate or the Chief Municipal authority, any infraction of the rules of common decency, or any improper conduct which he may know to be committed by the teachers or their students : he shall keep his Registers open for the inspection of any Medical Practitioner, who may desire to inspect them.

Coroner to give notice of bodies found exposed.

V. And be it enacted, that the Coroner who may preside at the inquest on any body found publicly exposed, and unclaimed by any bonâ fide friend or relative, shall give notice thereof to the Inspector of Anatomy of the locality, if there be any, failing which, he shall cause the body to be interred, as hath been heretofore customary.

Superintendents of public institutions to give notice of deaths in the same.

VI. And be it enacted, that the Superintendent of each public institution receiving Government aid, shall immediately give notice to the Inspector of Anatomy for the locality, of the death of any inmate of the Institution who shall not be known to have any friends or relatives entitled to claim the body.

Register to be kept by such Superintendents.

VII. And be it enacted, that each such Superintendent shall keep a Register shewing the name, age, sex and birth place (if known) of each person whose body shall be given over for dissection, and the name of the Medical Practitioner to whom such body shall have been delivered ; and that no such Superintendent shall deliver any body, except upon the written order of the Inspector of Anatomy for the locality.

Emoluments of the Inspectors of Anatomy.

VIII. And be it enacted, that the emoluments of the Inspector of Anatomy shall be as follows : he shall receive One pound five shillings, currency, for every body delivered over for dissection, which sum shall be paid him by the Teacher or Medical Practitioner, on receipt of the order for its delivery.

Medical Practitioners availing themselves of this Act to give security.

IX. And be it enacted, that every Medical Practitioner wishing to avail himself of the benefits of this Act, shall appear before one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace and the Inspector of Anatomy, and shall give security, himself in the sum of twenty pounds with two good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of ten pounds each, for the decent interment of the bodies after they shall have served the purposes required : and upon the due fulfilment of these conditions, the Inspector of Anatomy shall deliver to such Medical Practitioner a written authority to open a dissecting room entitled to the benefits of this Act.
