

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house."—Mrs. FRANK KROHN, 1828 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.
Albert Lea, Minn.—"For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them."—Mrs. F. E. YOE, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.
Pittsburg, Penn.—"Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. CLARA M. DUNN, 24 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice.—It will be confidential.

SENSATIONAL SHORT SESSION OF THE CITY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT

Alderman Robinson Raised Point of Legality of Last Session and Mayor Ketcheson Had Council Adjourned Until Tonight—Big Gathering of Ratepayers Expecting Discussion on the Chair Deal.

From Tuesday's Daily
The large body of electors who were spectators of last evening's performance at the city council meeting had come to get thrills over the "chair deal," but a sensation was sprung on them which left them bewildered, when the city council adjourned in haste until tonight. They could not gather the import of the unusual procedure and stayed around the city building for some time and gossiped over the situation. In view of the talk which has been going about the city today, the council chamber, it is predicted, will be crowded to the doors tonight.

Mayor Ketcheson and the aldermen had taken their seats. City Clerk Holmes had read the minutes and the Mayor asked whether there were any errors or omissions, and was about to declare them adopted and to sign them, when Ald. Robinson arose and declared that this was not possible as proceedings of last council meeting were illegal because the acting mayor, Ald. Woodley had not been appointed by the council to the chair pro tem. He referred the mayor to Section 203 of the Act. He declared all actions taken two weeks ago as null and void and said that the only course to pursue was to go over the business again.

The Mayor—"Ald. Woodley was appointed acting mayor at the regular meeting of the council."
Ald. Robinson—"That was not the council. I would ask some aldermen of the council to move that council adjourn until 8 o'clock tomorrow night so that we may get the solicitor's opinion."
Ald. Woodley declared "The mayor had the right to appoint any alderman mayor pro tem, even without the sanction of the committee or the council."
Ald. Robinson—"He could not."
Ald. Marshall—"If you, Alderman Robinson, were aware that the meeting was illegal, why did you of adjournment, seconded by Ald. Whelan

Ald. Platt suggested that the actions of the last meeting be gone over in short order.

Ald. Parks "I object to this council adjourning."
Ald. Deacon asked "Why can't we go on and get the solicitor's ruling during the session?"

Alderman—"You can't do that, the minutes of the last meeting have to be first signed."

"Well it's too bad," said Ald. Deacon, "here we have all the stage set, the scenery's all here." This referred to the crowd of spectators.

Mayor Ketcheson "And we're all ready."
Ald. Robinson moved, seconded by Ald. Parks in amendment that the council reconsider the business of two weeks ago.

Mayor "Two wrongs don't make a right. We're not so sure that that would be right."
The vote on the amendment was then taken

For—Ald. Robinson, Ald. Parks and Ald. Platt.
Against—Aldermen Whelan, Woodley, St. Charles, Deacon, Smith and Marshall.

Council accordingly adjourned until tonight to get the solicitor's view of Ald. Robinson's contention. The mayor said to the crowd "Too bad, gentlemen, tomorrow night, the same place."

The crowd had scented from afar a scene over the "chair" deal. Mr. J. L. Tickell who attended last meeting was present with a shorthand reporter to get down the golden and weighty words that were expected to fall from the lips of the city fathers during the discussion. Ex-Ald. James Duckworth, whom some of the council two weeks ago were inclined to blame for a so-called mistake in reading a tender of Tickell & Sons' Company, was also there to explain the situation. Some others of the audience were present on behalf of the Patriotic Fund to ask the city council for its patriotic grant.

If our chaps are really bad, you hear no murmurs. They take their gruel like heroes, and my God, they do get smashed up. You feel proud to be of the same race. They are going to win all right. No marching into Berlin and pulling the Kaiser's whiskers—no such piffle as that. We see what is going on and know it's a stiff proposition. With five hundred ships sunk in the last three months you can see it is not child's play. But the Huns know. Of course they want peace, but be it months or years we've just got to win or else good-bye everything we hold sacred. Give my best love to all. Love and best wishes to you. I see you are doing all you possibly can to help the old country, and what good Britisher wouldn't? It's an honor. Ever your very loving brother, Bob.

$10,000 INCOME FROM HALF SECTION

Mr. James Ross Tells of Profitable Wheat-Growing at Eastend, Sask.

Eastend, Sask., Mar. 7, 1917. There is every indication of spring and the farmers are cleaning their seed gain preparing to another big crop while the war prices are on.

I have been told by good authority that a farmer living close to the town of Eastend cleaned up $10,000 last year in wheat on one-half section of land. That is better than milking cows in Ontario.

Eastend was visited by one of the worst blizzards that has occurred in a good many years, so the old timers say. The "78" Ranch, which was feeding their cattle along the river bed, (some 1500 head) lost 71 in the storm. Some farmers who were out to their barns when the storm came on had to crawl to the house on their hands and knees. They could not stand up.

Mr. D. Pollock, formerly of Cobourg, Ont., an old rancher, built a fine new barn which cost in the neighborhood of $1200. It had 25 tons of hay stored aloft, and the wind moved it and blew the whole side in.

The town of Eastend is growing rapidly. It is only three years' old. It has six elevators for storing grain with a capacity of 30,000 bushels each. Three was a large hotel went up this last summer of solid brick at a cost of $25,000.

The banks along the river have a good many different kinds of clay. They are shipping car-loads every few days to Medicine Hat for the pottery works. There is a new store going up in the square, built by two Belleville men, Messrs. Anderson and Robertson. We wish them every success.

I see by the Belleville papers that our old friend Peter McLaren has been elected warden for 1917. Good luck, Pete. That's better than hunting foxes in a cedar swamp.

Your correspondent starts for Moosejaw in a few days as a delegate to the Liberal Convention which takes place on the 27th.

Mr. F. A. Lot, formerly of Ontario, is busy tearing down the old Eastend police barracks for wood. The government has built a new one.

Pte. C. P. Ross, who is in training in England, writes home to his mother, that he likes England fine and that they are going to put the Germans down in the spring.

Your correspondent received a letter from an uncle of his who states that he was 99 on the 14th day of February and expects by good care he may possibly reach his 100th year. He is known by old Bellevillians by the name of Jacob Sills, Toledo, Ohio.

James Ross.

LIEUT. DOWNEY HOME

Lieut. John Downey, of the 59th Battalion and a member of the famous 21st battalion at the front has arrived home again. He reached the city last evening, surprising his relatives who did not expect him so soon. Lieut. Downey will join the 25th to which he has already been transferred. He has had a long experience in the trenches and his acquisition by the 25th will be of great assistance to that unit.

SPANKING DOESN'T CURE!

Don't think children can be cured of bed-wetting by spanking them. The trouble is constitutional, the child cannot help it. I will send FREE to any mother my successful home treatment, with full instructions. If your children trouble you in this way, send no money, but write me to-day. My treatment is highly recommended to adults troubled with urine difficulties by day or night. Address: Mrs. M. Summers, Windsor, Ontario.

PRESENTED WITH SMOKER'S SET

Dr. Robertson Pleasantly Surprised by His Friends at Tweed

Dr. J. J. Robertson's departure from Tweed to his new field of labor in Belleville a week sooner than was expected precipitated a disappointment on his friends here who had made arrangements to do him honor before leaving, but an opportunity presented itself on Friday last when he was paying a business visit to town and it was taken advantage of. The news of his presence here was quickly passed around from one to another and in the evening he was "rounded up" at the home of Mr. A. B. Collins where a number assembled to pay their respects and to present him with a memento of Tweed which in the days to come would remind him of the circle of friends with whom his associations for the past twelve years had been most congenial. Dr. Mather was called to the chair and after a few complimentary remarks, combined with personal pleasantries in connection with his professional associations with the guest of honor, he called upon Mr. D. V. McNaught who paid flattering tribute to the doctor's citizenship and on behalf of his large circle of friends in Tweed presented him with a handsome brass smoker's set with pedestal. The doctor made a fitting reply amongst other things saying that his residence here had been one of great pleasure and that it was with reluctance he was leaving the place in which he had spent the past twelve years in the bonds of good fellowship with its citizens. In closing his remarks he said that the name of Tweed would always recall to his mind pleasant memories of the many happy days spent in our little village. Others present made brief speeches all of whom were not lacking in their eulogy of Dr. Robertson as a physician and a citizen, whose departure from town—as one casually remarked—was a positive calamity. Twelve years ago Dr. Robertson graduated as Senior House Surgeon at Kingston General Hospital and immediately took up practice in Tweed where success crowned his efforts to such a degree that his fame spread far and wide resulting in making a large circle of acquaintances by whom his departure from Tweed is felt with deep regret. He was the first of the medical profession in Central Ontario to install the X-Ray apparatus. He not only kept abreast of the time in this particular, but his ambition for knowledge of the more minute details of the profession was apparent in his annual visits to the large American hospitals. Apart from his profession the doctor was active in social and athletic circles; in the former always to be relied on and in the latter an enthusiast whose place will be hard to fill. In removing to Belleville Dr. Robertson and his family take with them the best wishes of a large circle of Tweed friends.—Tweed Advocate.

CIGARET LICENSE COSTS $20 AT KINGSTON.

Among the matters up before the City Council last week was the report of Ald. Armstrong's committee regarding the revision of license fees with a view of increased revenue. The only clause in the report to be objected to was that of a fee of $20 for cigarettes, cigarette tobacco and cigarette papers. After a lengthy discussion on it the members became unanimous when Ald. Armstrong pointed out that the object of a $20 fee was not to force the small store owners out but to make the consumer of cigarettes pay something for his luxury. The report which was finally adopted follows:
Tobacco and cigars only, $1.00 per annum.
Cigarettes, cigarette tobacco or cigarette papers, $20.00 per annum.
Shooting galleries, $10.00 per annum.
Shoe shine shop, $10 per annum.
Bill posters and distributors, $5.00 per annum.
Gasoline tanks, $5.00 per annum.
Skating rinks, where admission fee is charged, $25.00 per annum.
Junk collectors and dealers, other than those having premises, $10.00 per annum.
Autos for hire, $10.00 per annum.
