GRAND MASTER PENNY
MAKES ANNUAL ADDRESS TO THE BLACK KNIGHTS.

Reviews the Great Progress Made by the Order in Newfoundland During 1913. Decides on Laying Down the Baton, After Wielding It Five Years.

To the Officers and Members of the R. W. Grand Black Chapter of Newfoundland.

Dear Sir Knights,—Another year has passed in our history as a P. Grand Black Chapter, and through the merities of an All-wise Providence we are again spared to assemble in annual session.

Sir Knights, I bid you welcome to the fifth session of this Grand Black Chapter, which meets for the first time in the thriving and industrious town of Burin. The harbor of Burin is one of the best in our Island Home, and from it go forth to the Shore and invitation, and this of necessity made it compulsory for the Grand Black Chapter of British America to meet there also.

This brought to our shores men prominent in Church, State and Commerce from the Dominion of Canada, and one of the most successful sessions of the Grand Black Chapter was that held in St. John's in July last.

This Provincial Grand Black Chapter united with the Provincial Grand Chapter of the Dominion of Canada, and all the best in the history of the Black Institution or the Orange Order.

Amongst the notable and public functions given our brethren, I shall mention only two, viz: the Garden Party given by His Excellency the Governor in honor of our distinguished visitors, and the Banquet given at

J. W. PENNEY
Retiring Grand Master of the Provincial Grand Black Chapter of Newfoundland.

Bank fisheries some of the most successful of our Newfoundland sons. In looking around the town, one is easily convinced from the appearance of the beautiful homes and business premises of our brethren and friends that success has attended the labors of all.

Successful.

According to the Grand Black Chapter of British America report, Burin Preceptory holds next Chapter number to Rose of Sharon 216, St. John's, the mother Preceptory of the Island. We are pleased to note that it still continues to keep on its successful way.

During the four years that I have held the office of Grand Master, the Black Institution has advanced from fourteen to twenty-seven Preceptories in this Province.

During the past year four new Preceptories have been organized, viz: "Livingston," Brigus; "Terra Nova," Fogo; "St. Barbe," Bonne Bay; "Fern," Grand Falls; all of which promise to be successful encampments. I may say that I have had the extreme pleasure of organizing all four Preceptories. I may have found it a little inconvenient in reaching some of the places, but that was quickly forgotten when I met with the reception of the Sir Knights anxious to bid me welcome and to do all in their power to make my visit a pleasure to myself as well as a benefit to them.

During the year which has passed there have been no great events in connection with our Colony or with the Great Empire of which we form a part to which I have to call your attention; but the Black Institution and the Orange Order in general have had the most remarkable year in their history in this country.

Fiftieth Anniversary.

In 1912 at the Bonavista session of the Provincial Grand Lodge, steps were taken to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Orangism in Newfoundland by inviting the Grand Lodge of British America to hold its 1913 session at St. John's. The Grand Lodge of British America accepted this the Methodist College Hall, under the auspices of the Provincial Grand Lodge and the Provincial Grand Black Chapter.

Without doubt this visit of our Canadian brethren was the best advertisement the Colony and the Association have had for a long time.

Appeal Well Met.

I am pleased to be able to state that the appeal made to private Preceptories throughout the country for financial assistance in this great event met with a hearty response, to which Burin Preceptory added its full share.

As the whole arrangements were in the hands of one Committee, all the funds were placed to the credit of one account, and the reception to both parties was made one affair. That Committee will, I have no doubt, report to the Provincial Grand Lodge when the session opens in a day or two, which all Sir Knights can have the privilege of attending.

I have attended promptly to all correspondence received during the year, for their inspection.

One Death in 1913.

Death has taken from our ranks during the past year members, amongst whom the Sir Knights, Brother Martin was well known to all members of the Loyal Orange Association, and the Provincial Grand Lodge in particular, as he held the office of Provincial Grand Secretary for sixteen years.

Sir Knights, the passing away of our brethren reminds us how true are the words of Holy Writ: "Man that is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth as a flower, and is cut down. He fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not." Our brethren are gone, and we are all travelling to that undiscovered country from whose bourne traveller returns. Let it be a lesson to us to regulate our lives and actions that when our weak and frail bodies become dust and ashes, our spirits may soar aloft to those blessed regions where dwelleth light and life and immortality for evermore.

Sir Knights, I have held the office of Grand Master of this Chapter for four consecutive years, having had the honor of being the first Grand Master of the Grand Black Chapter of Newfoundland. I sincerely thank you all for the confidence placed in me from year to year. I have aimed to do the best I knew how, and if I have failed in any way I can assure you it is a greater regret to myself than to you.

Resigns After Four Years.

I now lay down the office of trust conferred upon me, and shall be perfectly satisfied to do my very best to assist whoever you may choose to succeed me as your Grand Master.

Sir Knights, I shall not again accept nomination. I have spent four happy and profitable years with you, and I hope that my successor will meet with even happier and more profitable years during his term of office.

In conclusion I express the wish that this session may be one of goodwill and much profit to our noble Order, and that all our deliberations will be carried out with that true fellowship which becometh all members of the Order of The Royal Black Knights of Ireland.

I wish to thank all the officers for their assistance during the past year, especially the Grand Registrar, whom I have always found most obliging and ever willing to lend a helping hand.

Yours faithfully and fraternally,
J. W. PENNEY,
Grand Master Nfd.
