Music and Drama

A most notable event, outside from the great dramatic successes of the latter part of last season, and one which promises to surpass any of the hits of this one, will be the presentation of Gen. Stratton Porter's greatest success "FRECKLES" which will be the attraction at the Grand, Saturday. Mr. A. G. Delamater, who has in the past given to the stage some of its most worthy successes, is responsible for its staging and as in "Beverly" and others, has left nothing to be suggested—in company, scenery and effects. "When it is remembered that 'Freckles' has been read by over a million souls; that it proved the best of the best-sellers, the great demand to see it on the stage, with its living, breathing characters, is readily understood. There is an intense desire to see 'Freckles'—the nameless waif, to follow him through his adventures in the great 'Lumberlog Swamp,' with his engaging personality, and his love story with 'The Angel,' to become acquainted with his benefactor, McLeaff; to see Mrs. Duncan, with her motherly love for Freckles, and all the other well-drawn characters. There are tears to be shed over the vicissitudes of this life, and there are many laughs coming from his quaint philosophy and ready wit.
