NEW ORGANIST FOR BRANT AVE. CHURCH HAS BEEN CHOSEN

Mr. Clifford Higgin is New Man-He Comes From Blackpool, England.

Mr. Clifford Higgin, who comes from Blackpool, England, has been chosen as the new organist of Brant Ave. Church. As will be seen by the following from a Blackpool exchange Mr. Higgin has won a high place in the musician world. The following is the tribute paid:

Blackpool is about to lose one of its most popular and most promising conductors and composers. Mr. Clifford Higgin, a musician of whom Blackpool is justly proud, has this week-end been offered and has accepted an important and lucrative appointment as organist and choirman of a church at Brantford, Canada. Whilst everyone will regret the departure of a musician of his exceptional attainments, the warmest congratulations will be extended to him by a host of friends both here and in Rosendale upon the fact that his talents have received this notable recognition, for the appointment is unquestionably a personal compliment and a tribute to his skill as a conductor and an organist. In this new and wider sphere "across the sea," Mr. Higgin will find larger scope for the exercise of his talents, and every friend and admirer throughout the city will unite in wishing him great success in his future career in the Dominion.

Mr. Higgin inherits his love of music from his mother, who was a noted singer in Rosendale for many years. The letter "B" has been closely associated with the whole of his career. Born at Bacup, he chose banking for his profession, was promoted to Blackpool, where he soon made a name for himself in musical circles, and now he is about to go to Brantford, Ontario, where further advancement, we feel sanguine, awaits him.

It is eighteen years since Mr. Higgin, organist, by the way, celebrated his 41st birthday on Saturday, the 13th of July. As an organist, he is admittedly one of the best in the borough. He has respectively held appointments as organist at the Adelaide Street Wesleyan Chapel, the Baptist Tabernacle, the North Shore Wesleyan Chapel and the Alexandra Road Congregational Church (a post he still occupies) four of the largest Nonconformist places of worship in Blackpool.

As conductor of the Blackpool Orpheus Society for the last twelve years, and as conductor of the Blackpool Amateur Operatic Society for nine years, he is, however, even better known for the numerous notable achievements of the Orpheus Ladies' Choir under his capable direction have won him fame both near and far. He has held the conductorship of the Orpheus Society from the establishment of the Society. During that period his Ladies' Choir has been brought to such perfection that premier honors have been carried off at Blackpool, Barrow, Preston, Southport, Lytham, and Bury musical festivals and in the international competitions at Paris a few years ago, the choir also won a trophy.

The brilliant success of the ladies' choir at the Blackpool Festival two years ago, when Dr. McNaught awarded them maximum marks, brought Mr. Higgin into touch with Dr. Vogt, conductor of the famous Mendelssohn choir at Toronto and director of the Toronto Conservatoire of Music, who was over in this country at the time for the special purpose of studying the music festival movement, and it is directly due to the acquaintanceship established that Mr. Higgin has been offered this valuable Canadian appointment. Dr. Vogt told him at the time that the Dominion presented a good field for an ambitious musician of his abilities and generously offered to assist him in every possible way if he made up his mind to go out there. Mr. Higgin remarked that he would have no objection to trying his luck in Canada if the prospects were sufficiently good. Dr. Vogt returned to Canada, and true to his promise, in April last he sent Mr. Higgin particulars of two vacancies for organists, one of which he accepted.

Mr. Higgin leaves England on August 7th on the steamer "Virginius," arriving here on August 15th ready to commence his duties at the choir practice immediately before Sunday, August 23rd.

The St. Mary's Tennis Club last evening entertained team number two of the Bell View Club, and after some very enjoyable games, the later club were returned the winners by two straight sets.

Messrs. N. Littich and H. Loftus represented the Bell View club, and were opposed by Messrs G. Kew and A. McIntyre of St. Mary's.

The Bell View members should remember that the first round of tournament closes July 20th, and games in this round must be decided before the above date.

LORNE BRIDGE

Work by the Railway is Proceeding at Satisfactory Rate.

Lorne bridge is a very busy scene these days, the work on the L. E. N. at that point being pushed along at great rate. The inner retaining wall is now nearing completion, the forms having been erected and the concrete dumped in. The steam shovel is busy excavating under the temporary bridge approach, and with the assistance of Constables Thomas and Burns, the work is being carried on with little interruption of traffic over the bridge.

A number of residents of West Brantford have been anxious as to what fire protection they would receive when the bridge is being raised. However, Chairman J. E. Ryerson of the fire and light committee, stated this morning that during the hours that the bridge was being raised a fire truck and men would be stationed in West Brantford to answer all alarms.

WAS INJURED AT NIAGARA CAMP

Private Sole of the Brant Dragoons returned yesterday from the Hospital There.

Pte. Fred Sole, of the 25th Brant Dragoons returned to the city last evening. Pte. Sole attended camp as a member of "A" Squadron, and on the 9th of June during the manoeuvres was thrown forward on his saddle and sustained a severe rupture. He went to the Field Hospital and remained there until the 20th of June when he was removed to St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. He was there successfully operated upon by Dr. Scott, Major of the Cavalry Field Ambulance. The operation was thoroughly successful.

Private Sole was discharged as fully cured yesterday, the 13th of July. Pte. Sole speaks in the highest terms of St. Michael's Hospital. This hospital is a Roman Catholic institution, and the Sisters in charge were devoted and untiring in their attention. Everything was done that could be done. The clergy of the Church of England are admitted to administer the sacraments to the patients. Two young ministers of the Church of England visited Pte. Sole in his sickness. Fred is a member of St. James' Church, Terrace Hill, and has hosts of friends who are rejoicing in his complete recovery to health.

Latest Comment On Local Soccer

There were three clubs in the Brantford and Paris Football league, who up until Saturday had not tasted defeat in league warfare. They were the Duffs, Tutela and the Scots. With the clash of Duffs and Scots one of the clubs was due to lose its prestige, and that club turned out to be last year's champions, the Dufferin Killies. And they went down badly too. Six goals against the opposition. So far the Duffs have said nothing about being weak, and they have made no holler.

The victory has been ascribed to the ingenuity of Jimmy Morrow, who planned out the mode of attack and defence with twenty-two corks, showing every man his position and how to watch his man successfully. That is all very well this time, but there are other things that count. Would the Scots have won so handsomely if Jones, their new centre forward, had not been there to meet the ball when occasion demanded? It is doubtful.

You cannot put science into raw material and expect it to materialize immediately. It is more than likely that Jones won the match from his ability to shoot and net. Jones is a good centre forward and the Scots are aware of it.

They oppose Tutela on Saturday, and we will see if the cork game can be successfully worked against Frank Clarke's brigade. The Scots are confident that it can and are going to try it, but the Park boys will be forewarned, and forearmed, and it is probably that Jimmy Morrow's cork stunt will be thrown to the winds. One ounce of practice is worth a ton of theory.

Probably the P. S. A. team realize the above maxim more than the rest and they have caused to. This is their first year in the league, and they must feel the need of a little wear in the tourney. Hopeful they are, and they are still going when many other combinations would have given up the ghost. It should be remembered that the Scots only scored one goal against them, in one of their games.

Until Saturday, Cockshuts appeared to have fallen from grace, and it is little wonder. They have met with many reverses and have not been able to draw upon their men at all regularly. The Cockshut men find it hard working laboriously all day. Barney Uniacke continues to return to health and with his come back the team may hearten up and yet have a say in the final windup.

The Wanderers have a fairly good team and yet they fail to win with any regularity. They make a good score and then again they lapse. What they require is a snappy forward or two. This would give them a new lease of life, and see them making a hum in the soccer circles.

Paris has a pretty strong group, and they prove a tough proposition on their own grounds. This is because of the local fandom who hail their team tremendously. Outside of their capital they do not appear so strong, but yet they are a set of good fighters and contest the issue right through. The Sons have to meet them on Saturday in the Courier Cup replayed tie, and as both teams are stickers, there will be a great match.

FORTY-FOURTH YEAR

TWO SISTERS WERE SLAIN AT CROSSING

Train Struck Their R When Driving Over Railway at Mt. Albert

Wellington Farmer Fatally Hurt

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

MOUNT ALBERT, Ont., July 13. The Misses Louie and Mary Starr, Pleasantville, Whitechurch Township aged between 30 and 35 years, were instantly killed at 11.40 yesterday when the conveyance in which they were travelling was struck by a northbound Canadian Northern train as it was nearing the terminals. The rig was smashed to pieces and a team of horses attached thereto killed.

The accident happened on a main road leading from Sharon to Mount Albert, about twenty rods from a station, and was witnessed by many people, including William Robinson, the C.N.R. agent, who was standing on the platform with the orders for the conductor.

Stories of eye-witnesses are to effect that the young women were apparently endeavoring to head the special off and cross the track before it entered the station. Miss Mary Starr, who was handling the reins, was suddenly seen to whip up the horse and attempt to cross the track. The track at this point takes a sharp curve as it enters the yards, and owing to the presence of considerable brush and marsh willows, the view is partially obscured.

The train was upon them before they could escape, and crashed in the democrat with tremendous force. Frederick Thomas, of Parry Sound, the fireman who was looking out the cab window, said it was evident that the horses became frightened at the noise of the locomotive approaching and slowed up for an instant at the crossing. The delay was fatal and the engine struck the vehicle in front of the dashboard. The two girls were flung about 30 feet, and were picked up terribly mangled. Death must have been instantaneous. Owing to a complete view of the crossing from the engine crew, the train was upon the rig before any effort to stop could be made.

The bodies of the two women were taken into the station waiting room and Dr. Cody called, but medical aid was of no avail. Coroner J. C. W. ley, of Newmarket, was summoned and on arrival a short time later, quickly empaneled a jury. The quest was adjourned after the remains had been viewed, to sit again in Mount Albert on Tuesday next.

The dead women were making their regular trip to the Tuesday market here, and had just delivered load of chop at Dike's Mills, east Sharon, before coming to Mount Albert to dispose of their remaining produce.
