Also Taking up Position of Defence on Both Sides of the Highway to Seres—Serbs are Moving Forward

By Special Wire to the Courier. Paris, Aug. 24, 2.20 p.m.—The French War Office this afternoon gave out an official announcement of the operations in front of Salonika, reading as follows: "In front of the right wing of the Allied armies, the enemy is entrenching himself on the left bank of the River Struma and on both sides of the highway to Seres. Between the Struma and the upper valley of the Moglenica Anglo-French forces have repulsed without trouble several attempts of the enemy to capture the positions occupied by Anglo-French forces to the north of Palmet; in the sector of Doiran, and in the direction of Ljumnica.

Not Yet in Seres

The Bulgarians are approaching Seres, but have not entered the town yet. Sofia's envoy at Athens has given assurances that neither Seres nor Kavala will be occupied by Bulgarian troops, but the advance in Macedonia continues and Athens is inclined to be skeptical of Bulgarian promises.

What About Roumania?

A forecast of what decision Bucharest will make and when she will make it is unwise. The allies, however, are optimistic. Several times in the last year, Roumania was ready to enter the conflict and reversed her decision only because the complexity of the war had changed Balkan bargains come high as both sides have learned, and they are never certain until they are delivered.

Allied Successes.

The outstanding feature of the fighting on the Salonica front to-day was the checking of the Bulgarian counter-offensive against the allied flanks. Both the assault on the

MAYOR BOWLBY STILL INSISTS NOISES WILL STOP

Declares If Not He Will Bring Factory Owners to Police Court.

The general opinion of the manufacturers with regard to the announcement that Mayor Bowlby intends to stop the sounding of factory whistles and "buzzes" is that the City Council at next meeting should amend the by-law. One factory manager, in talking with The Courier, said: "I don't think the workingmen will stand for any such nonsense. Each one knows the signal of the place where he works, and getting to the factory and getting to work is a convenient custom and I don't think anybody is hurt by it. If the noise wakes Mr. Bowlby, the workman, if he persists will do it even more so."

Grave Disorders Have Broken Out at Hamburg

For a Week Past Great German Sea Port has been in a State of Revolution, Hunger, Riots and Peace Demonstrations Occurring Frequently.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Aug. 24.—(New York Times Cable).—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Amsterdam says: For a week past the port of Hamburg has been in a state of revolution. One who has just 'escaped,' as he expressed it, tells an extraordinary story of the gradually rising exasperation of the population, until early last week they broke out into open hunger riots and peace demonstrations. The authorities appear to have been taken by surprise, for the police were unable and perhaps unwilling to quell the disturbances. They were completely overpowered before the soldiers could arrive, and angry crowds had forced their way through several of the principal streets and smashed every shop and business house window. Only vigorous military measures were able to restore order.

PUSHED INTO A SOMETHING THAT WAS NOT WANTED

Impression Among Masses of Hun People War Is Not Necessary.

SUSTAINING MUCH SUFFERING.

Must Endure War Because People at Top Need It, They Say.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Aug. 24.—(New York Times cable).—The London Times says that Frederick Naumann publishes in the current number of his weekly paper, Die Hilfe, an extraordinary article on the weakening of German popular opinion about the war and the need of counter-acting the present tendency. Herr Naumann writes: "Do Not Yet Know Cause. Two years ago all these people knew, but as they read the newspapers regularly, have little knowledge of geography and have no training in historical thought; even at the beginning, they grasped only a general impression rather than detailed events. Meanwhile, all that has for them returned to a state of flux and become obscure, and now mentally helpless in the fact of the sacrifices of the long war. Hence it becomes possible for agitation of the Liebknecht type to find its way into the very army."
