A Hard Sentence

Mrs. Edith Rigby, the well-known suffragette of Preston, was sentenced to nine months' hard labor on the charge of setting fire to the country residence of Sir Wilfrid H. Lever at Rivington, Lancashire, on July 8th, and causing damage estimated at $100,000.

The prisoner who is the wife of a physician, admitted her guilt, and also confessed to being the perpetrator of the bomb outrage at the Liverpool Cotton Exchange on July 5th.

Rev. Hans Schmidt in Tombs

Sobbing, "I am guilty, I killed my wife," the Rev. Hans Schmidt, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, New York City, is locked up in the Tombs prison, charged with having murdered Anna Aumuller, parts of whose dismembered body were found in the Hudson River.

According to Inspector Joseph Faurot, chief of detectives, and Deacon Murphy, Assistant District Attorney, Schmidt has made a complete confession and admits having killed the girl in an apartment after midnight on August 31, using a butcher knife to cut her throat, after which he dissected her body in the bathroom.

Schmidt told the police and Mr. Murphy that he put the body up into six bundles and carried them from the house, one bundle at a time took a Fort Lee ferry boat and, when in midstream, threw the bundle into the river.

The priest met the girl, who was twenty one years old, at the rectory of St. Boniface's Church, where he was an assistant pastor before going to St. Joseph's Church. She was employed as a servant there. He admits having been on terms of intimacy with her, performing the ceremony himself. A marriage license was found among his belongings in his room in the St. Joseph's Church parish house. It was issued last February, but Schmidt says that he married her only a few weeks ago.

Schmidt, who a few hours before had been hearing confessions, was accused of the crime and was confronted with the photograph of the girl, which he had left behind. He collapsed, but when he regained his composure he hastily put his hand in his pocket. He drew out a safety razor blade and attempted to slash his throat. Inspector Faurot grabbed him by the wrists and thereafter he was under restraint. Another razor was found in his pocket after he had requested permission to go to the bathroom.—Ex.

The dwelling of Obed Wile at Wileville that was struck by lightning a few days ago, is almost a total wreck. One end is torn out and the roof and other parts of the house are injured and the windows broken. How the inmates escaped with their lives is a miracle. Mrs. Wile was almost paralyzed, and the children and Mr. Wile were scattered in all directions by the force of the explosion.—Bridgewater Bulletin.

Making a Success With Apples

An Ohio orchard company produced 3,500 barrels of apples last year from a young orchard growing on a hill land that was selling unplanted at $60 an acre. The varieties grown were Ben Davis, Rome Beauty, Golden, Yellow Transparent, Jonathan and Baldwin. $200 was realized from the grown as fillers between the apple trees. The apples are graded and packed in boxes and labels, labeled with the name of the variety, the growers' name and their guarantee, with motto, "Same All Through—Top U C All". Particular attention is given to the marketing. The manager says, "The business of fruit growing Most of the crop is put in storage in the city until Spring when it is placed on the market and disposed of at a good price. This year a hillside store
