SENSATIONAL FIRE

Takes Place in a Montreal School--All Escaped Including the Daughters of Two Prominent Brantfordites.

(Courier Leased Wire).

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—Some in their bare feet, all of them in nightgowns, a few covered by kimonos and dressing gowns, hastily donned, twenty pupils in the select boarding school of the Misses Edgar and Camp, made up this morning as strange a load as any Montreal authorities have ever carried.

The fire which broke out in the school building on Guy street, drove teachers and pupils out in a hurry shortly before five o'clock. All got away without personal harm, but very few saved anything but the flimmest clothing. The fire was on the top floors, and the sleepy girls followed to the last detail their usual fire drill, assembling on the ground floor where the police and firemen found them very little excited. As some of the girls have their homes in the city, the police patrol was called to distribute them.

Two More Accidents for Flying Men

(Courier Leased Wire).

RHEIMS, France, Jan. 23.—The well known French flying man, Chas. Gahard, was thrown to the ground from a height of 200 feet by the capsizing of his monoplane, while making a flight to-day around the spires of the cathedral here.

This One Killed Instantly.

BERLIN, Jan. 23.—Another aviation accident occurred to-day during the military manoeuvres. Lieut. Otto Schiedel was instantly killed through falling to earth from a considerable height when the military biplane in which he was flying collapsed. The aeroplane was taking a high curve when it crumpled up and fell. The pilot Lieut. A. Von Scheele also was dangerously injured and was taken to a hospital unconscious.

ENTERTAINING

Were the Remarks at a Meeting in the Interest of Farmers--The Middleman Said to Get Most of the Profit.

Under Farmer's Institute auspices, Prof. J. B. Reynolds, of the Ontario Agricultural College, delivered an address last evening at the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Creelman had been booked, but was too unwell to attend.

Mr. Reynolds stated that he regarded country life as better for a man, his wife and family, and that at the end of ten years he was more in pocket than the average city man. He declared that the great shortcoming of the average farmer was that he did not proceed on business methods. First rate at a bargain all the time, but with no system to show at the end of the year just where he stands and what leads needed to be secured.

Under business man failing to keep tabs in such a regard would naturally go to the wall. Why then shouldn't the farmer be equally alert to his own splendid interests. He declared that the introduction of such a system would not only do much for the farmer's profit but also add a much needed interest to agriculture.

Dr. Reed said that the out-of-doors plan was the best for the cure of tuberculosis—that and proper sanitation for the house, the stables, and everything else.

SUFFRAGETTE MOVEMENT

David Lloyd George Expresses the Hope That the Cause Will Win Out--Working Women Heckle Two of the Ministers.

(Courier Leased Wire).

LONDON, Jan. 23.—"I hope we shall win on Monday," David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, to-day told a deputation of suffragettes representing the working women of the British Isles, whom he and Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, received at the Treasury department. "I certainly shall do my very best to see that the amendment to the franchise Reform Bill eliminating the word 'male' is passed by the House of Commons. Since I have been in the cabinet I have become a more convinced supporter of women's suffrage than ever."

The Chancellor of the Exchequer then went on to say that the Liberal Government was ready to stand or fall by Premier Asquith's pledge that the extension of the franchise to women the Government would support it.

seemed doubtful of the value to be placed on the promises of the statesmen.

"My experience during the passing of the state insurance legislation, has persuaded me that one of the most gross pieces of injustice in public life is that women have no voice in the determination of matters which affect them more closely than men."

Mr. Thomas' right leg was broken and he was badly shaken up while Mr. Carlin's head was badly gashed.

The Mails Were Too Fast for Him

(Courier Leased Wire).

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Jan. 23.—The mails were too fast for Robert Mifflinger, 62 years old, formerly a wealthy business man of West Norristown, and to this he owes the fact that he is alive. He planned to commit suicide and wrote letters to a local banker and an undertaker.

They received the letters so promptly yesterday that they reached him when he was lying down in his bathroom and fixing a gas tube in his mouth. He lost money recently in investments, he said, and got the idea that he would go to the poor house. He preferred death to that fate.

It Costs More to Die Now Than Formerly

(Courier Leased Wire).

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—The cost of dying and being buried is going up. The tombstone cutters here to-day are discussing the advisability of putting up the prices of tombstones. Grave diggers in all parts of the state are also planning to organize a union so that they can demand an increase in pay. Members of the State Retail Monument Association heard an address by John H. McHugh of Chicago, on raising the prices of tombstones.

Typhoid Germs are Reckoned by the Millions

(Courier Leased Wire).

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Col. W. B. Banister, medical corps U.S.A., during a discussion last night before the Chicago medical society on serum treatment and prevention of typhoid fever, said that 50,000,000 dead typhoid germs in a serum injection is an infinitesimal amount. In the army we would consider 50,000,000 infinitesimal," he said, "when we vaccinate a man against typhoid we give him an injection of 500,000,000 dead typhoid germs the very first time.

Of course we wait until his day's work is nearly finished. But we expect him to be on duty bright and early next morning and ready for the next dose of at least one billion germs.

TWELVE DROWNED

When a Norwegian Bark Foundered off the British Coast--Three of the Crew Only Survived.

(Courier Leased Wire).

GREAT GRIMSBY, Eng., Jan. 23.—Twelve of the crew of the Norwegian Bark Agda, were drowned when that vessel foundered at midnight on Tuesday off Spurn Head at the mouth of the Humber. Three other sailors, the only survivors of the wreck who were picked up by a trawler and landed here to-day told the story of their sufferings.

Tuesday during a violent storm and her holds rapidly filled.

The members of the crew took to a boat which was capsized, three times. On each occasion some of the struggling sailors were swept away and sank. Three survivors clung to the boat and drifted for twelve hours, washed hither and thither by the varying currents before they were sighted by a Grimsby fishing vessel which rescued them with great difficulty.

BIG SHOWING

Of the Crown Reserve Mining Company--Dividends During Five Years Amount to Nearly Five Million Dollars.

(Courier Leased Wire).

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—The annual meeting of the Crown Reserve Mining Company was held here yesterday. The report of Col. Carson, the president, showed that this mine has up to the first of this year produced 15,227,143 ounces of silver, having a gross value of $8,273,908. Last year's production being 2,714,766 ounces, valued at $1,692,060. The net profits for last year were $1,136,010 and the total dividends for the five years amount to $4,774,797.

The payment of a regular dividend of 24 per cent, and a bonus of 26 per cent to depreciate the plant in a liberal manner, and to gradually increase the surplus which now stands at $821,392, with the addition of $56,541 in 1912.

Samuel Y. Cohen, general manager, reported on the McEnaney Gold Mine, which he said had a profit of $650,000 in sight, sufficient in itself to pay the price of the properties and the monies expended on it and leave a net profit to the Crown Reserve of over $250,000. The directors and officers were re-elected.

TURKISH CABINET

Has Tendered its Resignation as the Result of the Action Which Has Been Taken by the Powers.

(Courier Leased Wire).

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The immediate consequence of the decision of the Grand Council of the Ottoman Empire yesterday to conclude peace with the Balkan allies will be the cessation of hostilities between Greece and Turkey both in the Province of Epirus and in the Aegean Sea and also the arrangement for the surrender of the Turkish fortresses of Adrianople, Janina and Scutari and the withdrawal with all the honors of war of their garrisons.

drawal from the various fields of operations of large contingents of their troops at an early date. The delegates in London, however, think that a month may pass before the final signatures are put to the peace treaty as the settlement of exact frontiers, the questions of indemnity and the guarantees in regard to the mosques, etc., of Adrianople still have to be arranged.

Difficulties may it is thought arise concerning the fate of Scutari as no one knows to whom it is to be surrendered whether to the Montenegro, to a provisional Albanian Government or to the representatives of the European powers.

King Nicholas of Montenegro insisted that he must enter Scutari at the head of his troops.

Otherwise he said the reign of his family in Montenegro is doomed as he against the advice of his generals, refused to take Scutari by storm at the beginning of the war in order to avoid the certain heavy losses which his small army would have suffered by such an attempt. He preferred the temporizing policy of laying siege to the fortress and should Scutari for this reason be lost to the Montenegro he alone will be considered responsible.

The members of the Turkish peace delegation in London show signs of depression, but they are determined that the era of concession must now be regarded as finally closed. They say they are convinced the European powers will certainly support the Turkish in rejecting the grasping demands of the Balkan allies for a war indemnity which they argue it would be to the interest of the great European nations to oppose as they are the principal shareholders of the Ottoman public debt.

The Turkish delegates remarked to-day:

"The allies themselves have chosen the Italian-Turkish treaty of Lausanne as the prototype of the present treaty. Italy asked for no indemnity although her expenses much surpassed those of the allies."

All fears of a resumption of the war having been removed, the Balkan allies are now planning the withdrawal from the various fields of operations of large contingents of their troops at an early date. The delegates in London, however, think that a month may pass before the final signatures are put to the peace treaty as the settlement of exact frontiers, the questions of indemnity and the guarantees in regard to the mosques, etc., of Adrianople still have to be arranged.

TURKISH CABINET RESIGNS.

(Courier Leased Wire).

TAXICAB ROBBERIES.

(Courier Leased Wire).

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The police are aroused again by so-called taxicab robberies. A particularly bold one was carried out last night when six highwaymen leaped from a taxicab that had drawn up in front of a wholesale provision house on Thirty-sixth street and with revolvers in hand held up four men employed in the place. While some of the men covered the employees with their pistols, one of the bandits climbed a wire fence and got to the cashier's cage. He emptied the drawer of $800 in cash and he and his fellows escaped in the cab. They overlooked $5,000 in an open safe.
