The Baptist foreign mission board has just received word of the death of Rev. George Churchill, at Bobbitt, Ind., on March 14. He was a native of Truro, and had been thirty-three years a missionary in India, and two years before that in Siam. He was sixty years old. Death was due to gangrene, following injury to his knee. Mr. Churchill's wife, who is in India, survives. A daughter, Elizabeth M., now at home in Nova Scotia, was accepted by the board a few days ago to go out to India, as a missionary, next fall.

The Grand Division, S. of T., of N. S., celebrates its sixtieth anniversary on the 22nd inst., at Lockport. It will be held in connection with the second quarterly session which opens on Tuesday, the 21st inst., closing with a public meeting in the evening. The G. D. of N. S. has a striking record. Competing in honorable rivalry against others having millions of population to draw from it has been, for the greater part of its history, the banner jurisdiction of the world. Competing with those having much smaller territory, whatever may be the reason, it has in many respects a record for successful work hitherto unapproached by any.

'Sovereign' Cashmere Hose and Hosiery are guaranteed to 'outwear' all other makes.

The officers of St. George's Lodge, No. 20, R. N. S., for the ensuing year, were installed at the last regular communication by D. D. G. M., A. J. McKenna, assisted by brethren of St. John's Lodge, No. 2; Wolford, No. 26; Harmony, No. 33; and by brethren of St. George's.

The following is the list of officers: Lewis W. Sleep—W. M., Ralph Creighton—S. W., J. Edward Hales—J. W., Stanley L. Gilmore—Treas., Abner J. McKenna—Sec'y., Chalmers J. Mersereau—S. D., Alfred I. Daniels—J. D., Thomas S. B. Wallace—S. S., H. T. Foyte Bullock—J. S., George W. Hunter—Tyler, Robt. W. Ford—Organist.

The entertainment from the gramophone directed by J. F. Kennedy added much to the pleasure of the occasion. At the close refreshments were served for which all seemed to be ready and which were much enjoyed. The singing of the national anthem brought to a close the program, and all voted they had spent a pleasant and profitable evening.

Stallion "Sensation"

Geo. R. Chipman has purchased from the Government of N. S., 'Sensation', the well known hackney stallion. Sensation is the true type of a hackney, possessing both quality and size, as well as a pedigree equal to that of any hackney in Canada or U. S. Color: chestnut stripes, near hind foot white. Foaled May 7, 1901, bred by Government of N. S., Sire, 'Majestic 2nd', 11-1523, Dam, 'Queen Louise', 114-5435, Dam by 'Boothby Performer', Imp. 53-5097, and Dam 'Nancy' by Mitchell of Landabona, 3rd Dam 'Tidy' by Lord Beconsfield, 'Majestic II' by 'Hayton Shales', Imp. 22-4810, Dam, 'Camo' bred by Donaghy. Sensation will stand at W. C. Thornhill's Stable, Grand Pre, for the season. This is a good chance for any farmer who wants to raise an 'all purpose' horse.

Elocution Recital By Seminary Girls.

CLEVER AND REFINED ENTERTAINMENT IN COLLEGE HALL LAST FRIDAY EVENING.

The Department of Expression at Acadia Seminary, under the able direction of Miss Josephine L. Goodspeed, gave an exhibition in College Hall last Friday evening. The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with evergreens and plants, and the large audience in attendance most enthusiastically received the various numbers of the program. It was a refined entertainment, and thoroughly enjoyable. The readings exhibited ease and naturalness of expression, and were quite free from that extravagant declamation, which, while aiming at effects, does not reach the mark.

The following numbers were given: Boat Race—Girls vs. Boys..... Oliver Wendell Holmes Jean McLatchy, of Sackville High Tide on the Coast of Lincolnshire..... Jean Inglew Agnes McKean, of Guysboro Concerto No. 7, 1st movement..... de Beriot Hilda Vaughn The Mustard Plant..... Howard Fielding Fleas Wood..... Angela Guard Thee, 'Jocelyn'.... song..... Cadard Almida McElhiney, of Windsor Violin Obligato..... Miss Paulsen Among the Alps..... Dickens—Collins Sydnie Dobson, of Moncton Duo Concertant—Violin duet..... de Beriot Evelyn Starr, Miss Paulsen. Rebecca's Journey..... Kate Douglas Wiggin Goldie Sweet, of Bridgetown Flower Play, adapted from the German by Miss Burmeister, Miss Burmeister at the piano Queen of the Flowers..... Eleanor Wood, Wolfville Snowdrop, Bertha Leaman, Halifax Violet..... Thelma Sexton, Falmouth Lily of the Valley..... Helen Corey, Wolfville Morning Glory..... Josephine Clarke, Bear River Waterlily, Nellie Pineo, Vancouver Pansy..... Alma Cooper, Springhill Lily..... Alice Eaton, Pugwash Rose..... Clara Lewis, Truro Carnation..... Daisy Sleep, Wolfville Forget-me-not..... Charlotte Layton, Great Village Scotch Thistle..... Mattie Loggard, Halifax Cornflower, Eugenie Bogart, Karsdale.

The flower play was a novel feature in entertainments here, but it was a complete success, the young lady participants representing in their costuming and behaviour the beautiful flowers they symbolized and the order of their appearance during their season. It was a most graceful and artistic performance and we are indebted to Miss Burmeister and to Miss Wood for a rare pleasure.

The violin selection by Miss Evelyn Starr and Miss Paulsen, teacher, elicited very hearty applause as a performance of superior merit.

The vocal solo, 'Angels Guard Thee,' by Miss McElhiney, was most effectively given.

Cured her Croup ALL ELSE FAILED

The first indication of croup usually comes about midnight, and is suddenly awakened by a paroxysm of suffocation and a dry, harsh, rasping cough.

There is no time to call a doctor and to prevent suffocation, the spasms must be broken up at once and the false membrane removed by use of our emetic or tickling the throat with the finger nail vomiting is caused.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine should then be given every hour or two to prevent the return of the trouble with greater severity. By using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, the cough is kept down, the inflammation is reduced and the croup is entirely cured.

Mr. F. W. Bond, 20 MacDonald Street, Berlin, Ont., says:

My little girl had been subject to the croup for a long time and I found nothing to cure it until I gave Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. I cannot speak too highly of it.
