TRACK AND TURF

Hamburg Belle High Class.

New York, June 23.—By her victory in the Roswell Stakes, for two-year-olds, over the last five furlongs of the Futurity course at Sheepshead Bay yesterday, Hamburg Belle again showed that she is a high-class filly. The daughter of Hamburg-Isaac picked up 120 pounds and gave away 15 to each of the other starters except Ocean Tide, whom she was meeting on even terms. Hamburg Belle galloped her field to a standstill in half a mile and won, eased up, by two lengths. She ran the distance in 59.1-5, remarkably good time, considering the slow track. The winners: Pulpit 7-1, Water Boy 9-5, Hamburg Belle 3-5, Van Ness 4-5, Bonibell 1-15, Leader 7-10.

Highland Park Opening.

Detroit, June 23.—Claude, second to The Picket in the American Derby, won the Frontier Stakes, the chief event of the Highland Park Club's opening day, in a gallop. He was an even-money favorite, and indulged Sir Gallant with the lead to the middle of the home stretch, where he was lapped by him and won as he pleased by five lengths. Bank Street finished third. The winners: Two Lick 5-2, St. Jovian 3-1, Charban 15-1, Claude even, Jim Ferrin 4-1, Gould 3-1.

Match Race Off.

New York, June 23.—The $10,000 match race between the famous trotters, Lord Derby, 2:05 3-4, owned by E. E. Snathers, of New York, and Major Delmar, 2:06 1-2, trained by Alta McDonald, of Poughkeepsie, has been declared off because Lord Derby is not in condition, and the $4,000 posted in forfeits in the hands of David Bonner will be turned over to McDonald.

Saddle and Sulk.

John Ruskin will join the Canadian colony of steeplechasers at New York, and sail with some races. Dan Lannansey bought the three-year-old filly in New York for $4,000, and will send him to Highland Park. With three-year-old weight up and going any distance from a mile and a furlong up, Claude can probably beat any other three-year-old in America. Irish Lad and Africaner out barred. The daily colt is the real sort of race horse, as he runs on any sort of track, wet or dry. Mr. J. B. Haggis is the owner of over 800 brood mares, and is therefore the most extensive breeder of thoroughbred horses in the world. These mares represent an estimated value of about three-quarters of a million dollars. The 800 mares are divided between his famous Rancho del Paso, in California, and Elmendorf, his Kentucky farm.

The entries for the open air horse show in the Queens Park on the afternoon of July 3 have filled remarkably well. The entries are 100 continued to Toronto alone, but such well-known owners as A. S. Chisholm, of Oakville; Langdon Wilks, of Blair; Miss K. L. Wilks, of Galt; G. F. Smith, of Guelph; and Kidd Bros., of Listowel, are represented. Entries close to-day.

New York, June 23.—At the sale yesterday of the Adelbert stud yearlings, Harry P. Whitney, after some spirited bidding, obtained the full brother to the late Messier for $7,700, the top price of today's sale. He is a colt, by Albert-Hoodoo. H. B. Durvey bought the two-year-old Eastgate Shore, by The Bard-Equipped, for $1,100. The other sales of $1,000 or over: Ch. c. by Albert-Montval, J. A. Bennett, $1,550, br. f. by Albert-Lady Uscul, F. Brown, $1,000; b. c. by Albert-Duchess May, S. Deibel, $1,000; b. c. by Albert-Miscry, P. Ryan, $2,000; imp. b. c. by Raeburn-Firebrand, E. L. Graves, $2,100; b. c. by Albert-Emily R. Sidney Paquet, $1,400; br. c. by Albert-Zetete, S. Lawlor, $1,600.

They Hold First Place as a Banisher of Kidney, Urinary and Bladder Troubles.

Kidney-Wort Tablets

GIVE MARVELLOUS RESULTS TO SUFFERERS.

Kidney trouble when neglected and allowed to take its course, is Bright's disease, nothing less than a consumption of the kidneys—then death. When you know that kidney disease has fastened its iron grip on you, avoid the use of wines and spirits, and carefully shun the liquid medicines of the day, which are largely composed of alcohol, and which will only hasten the disease. You are safe and get relief when you call Kidney-Wort Tablets to your aid. They are purely vegetable, and contain nothing that can interfere with rapid improvement

SPORTING

LAWN TENNIS

Canadian Tournament.

The fourteenth annual tournament of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association will be held on the courts of the Queen's Royal Hotel, at Niagara-on-the-Lake, commencing on Monday, June 24, and continuing on following days.

The prospects this year are excellent for a large entry, and Mr. Bens Wright, who ranked third amongst American players last year, and who holds the Challenge Cup, has promised definitely to be present to defend the cup.

This Challenge Cup is now the oldest cup in America that has not been won outright. The contest for it has been very keen, and the cup may be said now to be historic, having been in competition since 1890, and although it is a very valuable silver trophy, it is much more highly esteemed now for the names of the players on it than for its intrinsic worth. It dates back to the days of Tanner and Mansfield, and records the names of four champions of the United States—Hovey, W. A. Larned, R. D. Wren and M. D. Whitman.

BASEBALL

Eastern League Scores.

At Toronto—A vigorous finish turned what looked like a certain defeat for Toronto into a win yesterday. The reconstructed Worcester team, under the management of Eugene Demontreville, late of Boston and Washington, were the Toronto team's opponents, and they made all the early running. What the locals went in for their half of the eighth the score was 4 to 1 against them. Applegate, after the first, when the Torontos bunched three hits and scored a run and lost one by White's dumbness in being enticed off third by McAuley's bluff throw, had only allowed two singles, and had been as steady as a rock. The score: R. H. E. Toronto 4 5 1 Worcester 1 7 4

At Buffalo—Buffalo found it a very difficult task to defeat Providence and victory did not reach the Bisons' side permanently until their half of the ninth, when clean hits by Gettman, McIntyre and Atherton brought in the winning run. Both Hooker and Yerkes were touched up freely by the batsmen. Score: R. H. E. Buffalo 4 5 1 Providence 1 7 4

At Rochester—The home team was shut out by Newark, the locals being unable to do anything with Morarity, only hit batsmen facing him. The visitors connected with Leary's delivery just when hits were needed, the local twirler was wild and also floundered in his position poorly. The score: R. H. E. Rochester 0 3 3 Newark 0 5 2

At Baltimore—Baltimore defeated Jersey City by a batting rally in the last inning after the game had been virtually lost on account of bad playing in the base-running. The score: R. H. E. Baltimore 6 13 5 Jersey City 0 3 2

At New York—The home team was shut out by Newark, the locals being unable to do anything with Morarity, only hit batsmen facing him. The visitors connected with Leary's delivery just when hits were needed, the local twirler was wild and also floundered in his position poorly. The score: R. H. E. New York 0 3 3 Newark 0 5 2

BASEBALL AS EXPLAINED
BY A YOUNG YANKEE.

He was an Englishman and he had been sent with a young American to the baseball grounds to learn the national game.

"Just listen to the youngsters," was the advice I got when they started for the grounds. "You'll soon catch on."

"Say," began Jimmy when they had got settled on the bleachers and Jimmy had made a successful long-distance connection with the peanut man, "the Giants are putting up a great game, and we're likely to see something doing every minute. Wonder who's going to be on the slab to-day. (Aside to the man with the score card on the left.) Who's down to do the twirling? McGinnity? Thanks."

"What do you mean?" asked the British visitor.

"Oh," replied Jimmy, "I was finding out who was going to put 'em over the plate. Oh, I forgot you weren't here. I was asking who was going to pitch."

"Yes, the pitcher, he's something like the bowler, I guess. You see, he's the fellow who slams the ball up to the batter and the batter tries to punch the sphere out of the lot so as to make the circuit—the round trip—get a run in I mean."

"Oh, yes, the batter doesn't always connect. But McGinnity is the boy that can make the best of 'em fast—strike 'em out. Strike out? The pitcher putting three good ones over the plate without the batter doing any business."

"I'd rather be a pitcher than anything else, it's great fun to do the twirling and get the batters around the batter and then toss up easy pills that fool the sluggers, and then when the scorer is putting up the good ones walk up to the
