FOUND HIM AT LAST.

CLARENCE KIDD BROUGHT BACK FROM BUFFALO ON SATURDAY.

Order of Court Restoring Him to Mother Has Been Carried Out—Took an Officer Several Weeks to Find Him—Boy Did Not Want to Return.

An order made some time ago by Police Magistrate Jeffs, restoring to Mrs. Sarah Kidd, Rebecca street, her son Clarence, has been carried out and the boy has been turned over to his mother. The "Yellow Kid," as he was nicknamed, was a familiar figure on the streets several years ago. The children's aid society made a trip to Simcoe, Ont. about six months ago, the mother started proceedings to regain possession of the boy. The Magistrate, in making the order, said that while he had to comply with the law, Mrs. Kidd having sworn she was fit and ready to take care of the child again, he had to make the order, but he thought it would be better for the boy's sake if left where he was. The woman was determined and for several weeks past has been after the officials for not producing him. Special Officer Hunter made a trip to Simcoe, Ont. about six months ago, the mother started proceedings to regain possession of the boy. The Magistrate, in making the order, said that while he had to comply with the law, Mrs. Kidd having sworn she was fit and ready to take care of the child again, he had to make the order, but he thought it would be better for the boy's sake if left where he was.
