THE VOICE FROM THE SOIL.

The following timely Article is abridged from George Fisher Chipman's excellent contribution under above heading in the current "Canadian Magazine," and we earnestly commend it to the attention of our farmer readers and of all others as well as an instance of what can be accomplished by any class of workers when they decide to stand shoulder to shoulder against all sorts of monopoly, inequality and oppression daily dealt out to the disinherited, disorganized and weak of the earth:

Referring to the Grain Growers' Associations, founded in Saskatchewan in 1901 by W. R. Motherwell, now provincial minister of Agriculture, and Peter Dayman, Manitoba a few months later by J. W. Seallion; and later in Alberta, Mr. Chipman says that "Today there are approximately 28,000 farmers arrayed under the banner of 'Equal rights to all and special privileges to none.' The leaders are chosen and the campaign is on."

In the early days, the article proceeds, the farmers went west to find freedom and prosperity but were held up, instead, by the railroads and the Elevator companies who shipped them of everything but a bare pittance. Then came the federal Manitoba Grain Act which placed the grain trade of the West under federal supervision and jurisdiction. The new law said that the farmer should be allowed to ship in car lots instead of using elevators. But the railways distributed cars to suit themselves, not the farmers, and the latter were still at the mercy of the corporations.

Then Messrs. Motherwell and Dayman did some thinking, and the great Farmers' Union was born in Saskatchewan in 1901, and a railway agent was fined $50 for not supplying cars accordance with the Manitoba Grain Act, the Supreme Court confirming the fine. Improvement in western conditions dates from this fine. Alberta farmers, among whom was a branch of the American Society of Equity fell into line after Manitoba, and a united front was shown the robber corporations. "The farmers of the prairie have awakened to the fact that if conditions are to be altered so that EVERY CANADIAN WILL HAVE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY, the initiative must be taken by the men who produce the wealth of the nation. They realize that in order to have any influence in the Councils of the nation they must have numerical strength and unity."

"Though the farmers started out on their work as a protest against the unjust exactions of the elevator combine, they have attacked monopoly wherever they have found it. They have learned through bitter experience that the farmers of Canada are supporting combines and monopolies in all directions and that the wealth produced by the tillers of the soil is being gathered in by a comparatively small number of men at the heads of great enterprises. Under a protective tariff, they have watched manufacturers create combines and take from the farmer heavy toll on all that he buys. Under favorable legislation, they have seen the railways go in and possess the land which Nature intended for the farmer, and THROUGH THE BANKING MONOPOLIES THEY HAVE SEEN THE READY MONEY OF THE NATION TURNED INTO THE HANDS OF A FEW. The farmers have realized that the land speculator is no friend of theirs, and as the work goes on they are putting themselves into a position from which they can demand justice from all quarters.

"The work is not yet done. There are still scores of abuses to be re-med. The farmers want to see the principle of the Initiative, the Referendum, and the Recall established as a part of the constitution of every Canadian legislature. Then they feel they will have an opportunity to see that the legislators who now sit in the halls of parliament will represent the people whose votes elected them."

May the farmers of New Brunswick and all others who make their living, not by speculating in values produced by other people, but by useful labor, take the above to heart and go and do otherwise.

HOW TO CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A Great Sufferer From Indigestion Tells How She Was Cured.

Stomach trouble is a general name for all forms of indigestion, whether great pain after eating, belching of wind, heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, or the sharp pains that often make you think you have heart trouble. There are two things noticeable in indigestion. One is that doctors always always find indigestion a prominent symptom in a bloodless run-down state. The other, that sufferers usually find relief when a tonic is taken that restores the general health. Without a doubt stomach trouble is simply stomach weakness, and the cure is to make the stomach strong enough to digest food without trouble. Any other treatment is patchwork and cannot cure. As the processes of digestion are controlled by the blood and nerves, the stomach that is too weak to digest food needs a tonic to give it strength. And in all the world there is no better tonic than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They actually make new, rich blood, tone the nerves and so strengthen the stomach and all the bodily functions. We submit the following as proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure even the most obstinate cases of stomach trouble. Mrs. John Graf, Fort Saskatchewan, Alta., says: "For years I suffered great torture from indigestion. I took many different medicines, but instead of benefitting me I was growing worse all the time, till my stomach got so bad I could neither eat nor drink without pain. Even cold water would cause me suffering. Nor did I get any relief when the stomach was empty, as I still suffered from a horrid burning pain. I went to Edmonton and consulted one of the 'best doctor's there, but he told me that he could do nothing for me, that all I could do was to diet. For some time I took only hot water and a small piece of brown bread for my meals but even that did not help me and I got so weak and run down that I despaired of ever being well again. I bought a so-called electric belt and wore it for six months but it was simply money wasted. Then one day a friend asked me why I did not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I did not know they were intended to cure indigestion, but being assured that they were, decided to try them. I soon found the Pills helping me, but my condition was so bad when I began using them that I continued taking the Pills for about five months before I felt that I was completely cured. Then I could eat any kind of food, and although more than two years have passed since my cure, I have not since had the least sign of the trouble. I can most heartily recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to anyone suffering from this terrible trouble."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Preaches on Temperance

Last Sunday being Temperance Sunday, Rev. W. J. Dean in the Methodist church in the evening spoke plainly and more plainly on the liquor traffic than did Rev. S. J. MacArthur and Rev. Dr. Cousins on the same subject at the Sons of Temperance meeting on Oct. 14th ult.

Rev. Mr. Dean took as his text Isaiah V: 14—"Hell hath enlarged herself and opened her mouth without measure," and said, in part:

"The deepest hell is the place for the man who deliberately, either as a treat or for profit, gives intoxicating liquor to another. It is done in Newcastle. Only a few days ago a man, whose besetting sin is intemperance, was given liquor by a prominent man of this town."

The speaker went on to depict a council in Pondenonium, where Lust, Moloch, Strife and Mammon each offered to go to earth and try to destroy men. Mammon, or the love of gain, was most commended by the evil one.

"It is hard to keep calm," the preacher continued, "when one sees such evil around him. If there were a monster at the mouth of the Miramichi—God knows there is one at Hotel Miramichi—which, like the Cretan Minotaur, claimed once a year a number of our young people for food, there would be no young man so cowardly as to refuse to join an attempt to overcome such a monster. The Indians—I do not know how they get it, perhaps by the wayside—it has of late been something dreadful to see them rolling along up the Northwest drunk. I have seen them, along about Kirk's Corner. There are numbers of men coming into this town with prescriptions for liquor from doctors outside of the town, even, I am told, from doctors outside of the county to druggists here to be filled. Perhaps the law for such cases is not stringent enough. Don't let us blame others but let us each wake up and do what we can to stop the terrible tide of evil flaming in our town. Hell has enlarged herself and opened her mouth without measure."

These Tablets never fail to relieve the little ones from any of the many little ills that afflict them. Mrs. Thos. Hodgson, Riviere du Loup Station, Que., writes: "I always keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house and have given them to my two little ones with the best results. I always recommend them to my friends as they are a grand remedy." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
