

THE WEEK IN NEWCASTLE

Other Local News
Other local and provincial news will be found on page three.

Putting on New Roof
The Sixth Street Mercantile Co. are having a new roof put on the warehouse in the rear of their store.

Card of Thanks
Mrs. Catherine Donahue wishes to thank her many friends for kindness shown in her recent bereavements.

Music at Happy Hour
An efficient four-piece orchestra is now putting up a good program of music at the Happy Hour, which is quite an addition to the already popular movie house.

Will Occupy Pulpit
Rev. W. Harrison will occupy his pulpit on Sabbath, Sept. 5th, morning and evening. Service at Maple Glen in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Hunting Season
The open season for geese, brant, teal, wood duck and black duck opens today, September 1st. According to advice received by the Crown Land Department one of the most successful seasons for several years is expected.

Red Cross Dance
Mrs. J. B. Snowball, Wellington St., Chatham, is opening her grounds to the public in aid of the Red Cross, on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 2nd, from 3 to 7 o'clock. An admission fee of 25 cents will include afternoon tea served on the lawn. If the weather is unfavorable it will be held the following afternoon.

Meeting of Creditors
A meeting of the creditors of M. L. H. Russell, Leggettville, was held here on Friday when Hon. L. J. Tweedie, and Mr. Thos. Maltby were appointed inspectors and Sheriff O'Brien assignee. The debts amount to about $5,000 and the real estate and stock to something more than that amount. A writ for $500, issued at the suit of A. & R. Leggie Co. compelled the assignment.

Patriotic Fund
W. J. Jardine, Treasurer Patriotic Fund reports contributions as follows: Previously acknowledged, $3,127.67. Mrs. Eliza Armstrong, 100.00. $3,227.67. The August payments of West Northumberland Branch total $375.

Land Purchase
The corner lot between Castle St. and Henry St. has been sold by Mrs. Annie Keating to John O'Brien for $630. The lot was about 63 feet long by 10 feet wide one end and over that at the other. A piece almost 14 feet long and 10 feet wide at one end and 17 at the other has been given to the town in exchange for a piece of Henry Street 48 feet long and from 1 to 3 broad. Mr. O'Brien will build a new store.

W. C. T. U. Annual Convention
The ninth annual convention of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island W. C. T. U. convenes at Newcastle Sept. 7th, 8th and 9th. Miss Margaret Hyslop, Dominion Organizer will be the speaker and assist at the work of the convention. It is desirable that all unions send a good delegation. The usual convention rates will obtain on the railways. Mrs. James McWha is President, Mrs. L. R. Hetherington, Corresponding Secretary.

To New Subscribers
New subscribers to the Advocate, and others who have renewed their subscriptions during the contest, will kindly notify this office of any irregularity in the delivery of their paper, a miscarriage of date of subscription, or of any other trouble that might happen. It is possible that there will be errors or irregularities in the new lists that will be caused by the large amount of extra work in consequence of the contest. These matters can be satisfactorily adjusted by notifying this office as soon as they are noticed and by doing this, subscribers will confer a favor on the management, and save trouble later on.

A Gentleman of Leisure
A Gentleman of Leisure, the photo-drama from the play of the same name, in which Wallace Eddinger is seen as the star, under the management of Jesse L. Lasky, is a genuine farce comedy of situations. That is to say the fun is dependent neither upon words nor on grotesque acting, but lies altogether in the actual complications of the story. The whole plot concerns the very amazing adventures of a society "bloke", who makes a wager that he can commit larceny and escape arrest and who quite naturally finds himself in a series of most embarrassing and unusual predicaments. Wallace Eddinger in "A Gentleman of Leisure" was the offering at the Strand Theatre in New York City—America's most elaborate picture theatre—for one of the most successful weeks in the history of that national institution. "A Gentleman of Leisure" will be the feature production at the Happy Hour on Thursday night. See advt. on page 8.

Yarns
Moncton and Oxford Yarns in dark medium and light greys, black, white and Reds at John Ferguson & Sons.

Broke Several Ribs
Frank Curry, Sr. of Chatham Head, fell out of Lynch's mill at Nelson on Monday, alighting about 20 feet below and breaking several ribs. Mr. Curry has a son Frank Jr. with the Canadian army in England.

W. F. M. Meeting
The regular monthly meeting of the W. F. M. of St. James Church, will be held in the Ladies' Parlor on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. A. M. GILLESPIE, Sec.

School Openings
The new Nordin School house was opened yesterday morning, Miss Sadie E. Urquhart teacher, and 37 pupils in grades 1 to V. The building is a credit to the new district.
Douglstown Superior School reopened on the 25th with the same four teachers as last year; H. H. Stuart, Principal, and Misses Mary Carney, Mary Donovan and Annie Morrison. There are 135 pupils.

Vickers—Mather
The home of Mrs. Andrew Mather was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday evening, when her second daughter, Elizabeth, became the wife of Mr. Lyman Vickers, of this town. Rev. M. S. Richardson tied the nuptial knot in the presence of immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Vickers will reside here.

Tonight's Social
Arrangements have been completed for the grand Social in the Square tonight, and everything promises to be a great success. The band will render a good program of music, and ice cream and refreshments will be on sale. The soldier dolls which are attracting so much attention in the windows of the local merchants, will be disposed of by wheel of fortune. After the dolls are disposed of a dance will be held in the Town Hall. The proceeds from the entire program will go towards the Patriotic Fund.

Young Boy Badly Burned
Ned, the eight year old young son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hachev, was the victim of a very painful accident one afternoon last week. The young fellow was preparing to take a bath in the family washbub and had put the cold water in the tub, and in childish glee was playing in the water, while his older sister, Beulah went to get some hot water. On her return she asked him to be careful, as she was about to put the water in the tub, and the young fellow rising suddenly struck the pail with his head, knocking it out of his sister's hands and spilling the boiling contents over his little body. He was painfully scalded about the back and chest, but is convalescing.

Women's Institute
Newcastle Women's Institute met in special session last night, Mrs. Besse Gough presiding. Mrs. H. H. Stuart secretary.
Nine new members were added to the list, making a total of 24.
The Institute decided to hold a special course in Cooking and Domestic Science here some time this fall, under the direction of Miss M. I. John. The classes will be free to all members of the Institute. The Institutes are open to all women over 14 years of age, are doing a grand work, and should be encouraged. The annual fee is only 25 cents. Every subject of interest to women and the home is discussed in the meetings.

EXCURSION, BAND CONCERT AND SUPPER

On Thursday of this week, 2nd of September, the Presbyterians are to have another supper, sale and band concert to be held in the Orange Hall, Redbank. We want it to be better than ever, better band, better supper, better ice cream, better fancy things, better fun. The steamer Dorothy N. is chartered to bring the band and all others who care to come on her. She will return the same evening. It will be a fine chance for a good trip up and return in the moon light. The boat will leave Newcastle at 4.30 and will call at the different points at an hour and a half later than usual. Supper will be served from 7 o'clock and after. Pie sale at 9 o'clock. Tickets for band concert 15 cents, supper 30 cents. Plan to come and bring someone with you. After supper buy her some ice cream, fruit and candy and for a lasting remembrance some fancy article or other. Do not forget the date. The band has promised to be on hand at 7 o'clock when supper begins.

OBITUARY

MRS. ABIGAIL UNDERHILL
The death occurred at Underhill on Saturday morning, Aug. 29th of Mrs. Abigail Underhill, widow of the late Wm. Tryan Underhill, at the ripe age of 82.
