St. George's Welcomes the Apostolic Delegate and Its Bishop, the Rt. Rev. M. F. Power.

On the next morning the installation of the Bishop took place, and of that beautiful and inspiring ceremony I will say nothing, being convinced that a report of it is already in your hands.

At the close of Mass came the presentation of the addresses; that of the people to the Delegate was presented by Magistrate McDonald, and those of the Star Society by the President and Secretary, Messrs. Ambrose O'Reilly and M. A. White.

The Delegate replied in Latin and well chosen words, and with an undercurrent of deeper feeling which touched every heart. Then saying that he understood that French was the mother tongue of many in the congregation, he begged leave to say a few words to them in that language.

He spoke of the glorious days of old when France was first in honour among the nations, first in faith, first in loyalty to the Holy See; he spoke of her missionary labors to the farthest ends of the earth and the long succession of discoverers and teachers who brought a knowledge of the Cross to the people of many lands. He referred to the New France which has grown up on this side of the water, which holds all the best traditions and displays all the best qualities of the old, and exhorted his hearers always to live faithful to that glorious past and always to be true and steadfast followers of Holy Church.

His Lordship's Bishop Power in replying to the address of the Clergy of the diocese was visibly affected and spoke to us in such touching words and in tones which showed how heartfelt were his utterances as to deeply move members of the Star of the Sea Association he thanked them for their address, and spoke of their duties and privileges as a Catholic Society and of the work they had done and would no doubt more and more continue to do for the honor and glory of God.

To the vast throng who listened to his reply to the addresses it seemed, indeed, that the work of advancing the interests of the Master in this diocese which his two illustrious predecessors had changed for, perhaps, heavier tasks for that Master in wider spheres of influence, had fallen indeed into good hands. May God prosper him in the work he has to do and spare him long to his people.

At 2.30 o'clock Monsignor Stagni, the Bishop and party accompanied by the Citizens' Committee and a Guard of Honor of the Officers of the S. S. A. took voyage on the S. S. Acadia to visit the parishes of Stephenville and Port au Port. The Delegate and Clergy were entertained at the Mansie in each parish and lavish hospitality was dispensed elsewhere to the visiting committee and officers of the Guard of Honor, particularly was this so at the former parish. At night the party returned to find St. George's again illuminated and to be received with another hearty welcome.

Throughout the whole celebration there was but one shadow of regret.

Among the numbers here who had known and loved Archbishop Howley at the time that he worked here among difficulties and privations as our pioneer Bishop, great joy was felt when we heard that he was coming once more to visit us, and it was with deep regret we learned that other cares and duties had prevented him.

Greatly was his well loved face and magnetic personality missed from the visiting prelates; many were there who longed to clasp again the hand that had often been extended to them in love and kindness. Among the throng the words could often be heard, "Where is Archbishop Howley, didn't he come? What a pity, he would have been proud of us to-day!"

To one whose imagination has become calloused or whose blood runs sluggishly through his veins, the enthusiasm of those days may be hard to explain. To one of Catholic sentiment it is easy to enter into the spirit of the people and to understand the welcome given to the Apostolic Delegate.

The welcome to Bishop Power comes from similar motives and is yet slightly different. We receive him with the love and respect with which Catholic people always receive those whom the Church appoints to guide them; we welcome him because he comes of a race which endured long centuries of suffering for the faith, we rejoice because he is one of our very own, a son of the soil, a Newfoundland and in this we all join, no matter how we may differ in points of belief who has been placed among the highest in the land, who has been found worthy to sit in the Ruler's seat, and we rejoice that "the old times change their place to new," and no longer can it be said as it was of old time, "Can any good come out of Galilee."—Com.

Death of Mr. Archibald Drover.

By the death of Mr. Archibald Drover, which sad event occurred at his residence, 13 William Street, on Wednesday night last, a highly respected citizen and silver fisherman-planter has passed from amongst us.

Mr. Drover was born in Upper Island Cove sixty-nine years ago, and sprung from the pioneer family of that thriving little settlement in Conception Bay. From boyhood, up to twelve or fourteen years ago, like all his ancestors, he followed up the fisheries; and was for many years master and owner of a schooner in which he presided the great industry at Cape Ballard and Cape St. Mary's. By honest industry and perseverance he attained a very fair measure of success, and was always looked upon by people of all classes as an upright, independent fisherman of the old school. He also went considerably into the supplying trade, and took a deep interest in the affairs of our country. He enjoyed phenom. good health until about eight weeks ago when he was stricken with an illness which culminated in his death. Mr. Drover was a man of splendid physique, as well as a courteous, cultured and hospitable gentleman. For about ten years he was a trusted employee of the Rennie Baking Co. of this city, and for the past few months was employed by the Marine and Fisheries Department. He leaves a widow, who is one of the Reeves family and pioneers of Bell Island, but no children. His many friends in Conception Bay and elsewhere will read this obituary of this truly honest and industrious old Newfoundlanders with the deepest regret, and the Telegram extends its sincere sympathy to the widow and friends in their sad loss.

Wedding Yesterday.

MURPHY-BERTEAU.

Yesterday we announced that the wedding of Miss Edith Berseau, eldest daughter of Mr. F. C. Berseau, and Dr. G. N. Murphy was to take place at St. Thomas's Church at 2 o'clock that afternoon. At that time the bride, accompanied by her father, entered the church while the organ pealed forth the welcoming strains of Wagner's Wedding March from Lohengrin, played by Mr. Herbert Stirling. The bride presented a charming appearance in a lovely bridal gown of ivory orlon satin, trimmed with silk and pearl embroidery and crystal fringed. She also wore a beautifully embroidered veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a magnificent bouquet of white roses and maiden hair ferns. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, given by the bridegroom. The bridesmaids were the sisters of the bride, Misses Dorothy and Margery Berseau, and her cousin Miss Edith Hayward. The eldest Miss Dorothy, was daintily attired in a frock of mauve satin, veiled with Liberty Temple gauze, and a Tuscan straw quaker bonnet, crinoline and sweet peas and mauve velvet strings. The younger bridesmaids wore dresses of turquoise blue satin and sashes of blue shot Liberty Temple gauze, finished at the ends with small bunches of sweet peas. Their pretty hats of biscuit color straw, were wreathed with sweet peas of various colors. The bridegroom presented them with pretty pearl brooches and bouquets of sweet peas. The bride's mother wore a handsome dress of crepe, trimmed with colored silk embroidery and hat to match.

The groom was assisted by Mr. A. J. Herder, and the ushers were Messrs. H. Hutchings and Cecil Clift. After the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. G. R. Godden, M.A., a reception was held at the residence of the parents of the bride, Dr. and Mrs. Murphy, left by the ushers for a honeymoon trip through Canada and the States. The bride's travelling costume was of russet brown cloth trimmed with black silk braid and tuscan straw hat, wreathed with roses.

LUCKY MISTAKE.

Grocer Sent Pkg. of Postum and Opened the Eyes of the Family.

A lady writes from Brookline, Mass.:

"A package of Postum was sent me one day by mistake. I found it spoiled the grocer, but finding that there was no tea or coffee for breakfast next morning, I prepared a cup of Postum, following the directions very carefully.

"It was an immediate success in my family, and from that day we have used it constantly, parents and children, too—for my three rosy youngsters are allowed to drink it freely at breakfast and luncheon. They think it delicious, and I would have a mutiny on my hands should I omit the beloved beverage.

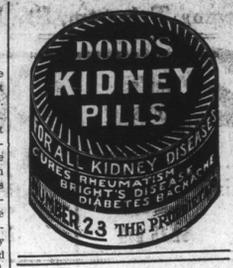

"My husband used to have a very delicate stomach while we were using tea and coffee but to our surprise his stomach has grown strong and contented since we quit tea and coffee and have been on Postum.

"Noting the good effects in my family I wrote to my sister, who was a coffee taster, and after much persuasion got her to try Postum.

"She was prejudiced against it at first, but when she presently found that all the ailments that coffee gave her left and she got well quickly she became—and remains a thorough and enthusiastic Postum convert.

"Her friends which had become shattered by the use of coffee have grown healthy again, and to-day she is a new woman, thanks to Postum." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ontario, and the "cause why" which I found in the great little book, "The Road to Wellville," which comes in pkgs.
