"THE GREATEST ADVANTAGES!"

Yesterday we made an extract from the 1908 Manifesto of Sir Edward Morris in which he undertook to carry out a policy which should ensure the greatest possible advantages for our people through a prudent conservation and energetic development of the material resources of the colony.

It is notorious that the results of his policy has accrued to the greatest possible advantage of a few grabbals, and the people have been left to scratch for themselves. Yesterday we commented on a few of the ways in which some Morris supporters have been raking money in.

To-day we propose to offer a few remarks on the means Morris proposed to ensure the greatest possible good for the people.

It will be observed that Sir Edward Morris proposed to conserve the material resources of the colony prudently. The way it has worked out is enough to make the angels weep. Let us take some of the licenses to cut timber approved of by the Morris executive: Walter Crosbie, 71,630 acres, Sept. 2nd, 1909; A. W. Knight, 416,000 acres, Dec. 11th, 1909; R. W. Strong, 5,120,000 acres, Dec. 9th, 1909; Anglo-American Development Co. (Morris's Co.) Feb. 2nd, 1909, 3,126,000 acres; Anglo-American Development Co., Dec. 7th, 1909, 609,320 acres; W. R. Howley, Feb. 2nd, 1910, 522,000 acres; A. W. Knight, 51,000 acres, Dec. 30th, 1909; John Gibbs, June 8th, 1910, 25,600 acres.

These are a few of the applications approved by the Morris executive within twelve months of their coming into power. We ask our readers whether they consider that these approvals show any prudence in conserving the material resources of the colony. Next we turn to the credit of the colony. Was that resource of the country prudently conserved in entering into a contract for branch railways which will entail the payment of some eight million dollars instead of the four million dollars which Sir Edward Morris led the country to believe would pay for everything?

Was any prudence shown in agreeing to pay the contractor in gold instead of bonds and thus casting on the colony an extra burden of half a million dollars? Was any prudence shown in paying $2,200 for two spars? Has any prudence been shown in the expenditure of about a quarter of a million dollars on the agricultural force?

Was any prudence shown in making Downey and Devereaux place-men?

Was any prudence shown in the expenditure of some Twenty Million dollars since Morris came into power? Is any prudence being shown in the lavish expenditure of public money throughout the districts this election year? Is any prudence being shown in the hush grants to satisfy disgruntled supporters and civil servants?

Turning now to the promise of energetic development of the material resources of the colony. Has it been shown in the exploration of the coal areas and the investigation of peat areas, which was to cheapen the price of coal. We have heard of Coaker cheapening coal in some outposts, but the Morris Government has done nothing.

Has any energy been shown in the adoption of cold storage, bait freezers, the opening up of new markets in Mexico, Central and South America and other parts of the world when our fish does not enter?

Has any energy been shown in providing steam subsidies to the West Indies and elsewhere as Morris promised?

Has anything worth while been done since the establishment of the Public and Paper factories during the Bond regime. No, instead of this, we have had a lot of fizzes; the Trefethen and

Twillingate Indignant About Labrador Mail Service.

But Jubilant Over Sir Robert Lead- ing.

Special to Evening Telegram.

TWILLINGATE, To-day.

The present Labrador fishery news and mail service is rotten to the core. The Morris plea as the fishermen's friend is all a cod. The Invermore arrived to-day bringing no fishery news below Hopeville as usual. Why doesn't the so-called People's Party arrange for the Invermore and the Kyle to meet the Stella Maris north of Hopeville? News has been received from northern Labrador only once this season. Twillingate is indignant over the present system. Three steamers on the route and our floating fishermen cannot be heard from. No wonder the fishermen of Newfoundland are rising in full force and demanding that MORRIS MUST GO! It is now proven beyond doubt that the Morris Party is rightly termed the Picnic Party, and that their death knell is sounding. Twillingate is jubilant over the announcement of Sir Robert Bond again leading the Liberal forces. Bond Can't Lose!

Energetic development of the resources of the Colony has resolved itself into mere vapourings. The prudent conservation of the assets of the Colony has turned into lavish and wasteful extravagance. And the carrying of the prudent conservation of the assets of the colony has turned into wasteful extravagance. And the carrying out of a policy for the greatest possible advantage has resolved itself into feeding timber sharks and Treasury vampires.

Here and There.

A QUIET CITY.—Matters in police circles are quiet and only three drunks were arrested yesterday.

Stafford's Drug Store, Theatre Hill, does NOT close at 7 o'clock every night.—aug 29, 11

WHAT ABOUT THE MARY?—The people are asking about the Mary. Who is paying the subsidy? Has the Government to pay anything on account? Answer, Sir E. P. Morris.

A meeting of the Boat Club Dance Committee will be held in the Band Room to-night at 8.15. W. J. OAKLEY, Hon. Sec.—ad, li.

MAYOR ELLIS COMING.—Mayor Ellis, who is in town now, looks well. The Mayor will be in the political arena. He has got to win out. Like the Bond Party, he "can't lose."

FOR BRAZIL.—The brig, Mayflower started loading codfish at Goodridge's yesterday. When finished she will sail for Brazil.

TEN TO ONE.—In the East End of the city to-day betting was 10 to 1 in favor of Kent, Shes and Dwyer. In the West End Morris is knocked out. Can't somebody tell Harry Bartlett to get in out of the wet. Don't they realize that "Bond can't lose." All the people say this.

OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY OUT FOR UNDENOMINATIONAL SCHOOLS.

The extract which we append is taken from the last issue of the Twillingate Sun and speaks for itself. It is another nut for McGrath to crack. This statement comes from the organ of the Morris-Morison Government in Twillingate.

"THE UNDENOMINATIONAL EDUCATION QUESTION.

"Since last week's issue we notice by the Advocate that Mr. Coaker denies having advocated undenominational schools when at Change Islands, recently. If that is so, and we presume that Mr. Coaker invariably speaks the truth, the Twillingate Sun is the only paper in the country with the courage of its convictions to advocate this course. We believe we have a large number of sympathizers with us in this, and teachers generally throughout the country having had the opportunity to see the unfortunate results of the present divided system are almost a unit for undenominational schools.

It is generally conceded, however, that our Catholic brethren are entirely opposed to a uniform system. Even supposing they are, there should surely be nothing to prevent general Protestant schools at least. The present system is absurd, cumbersome and expensive."—Twillingate Sun.

Guards Win Out

One of the best games of football seen for some time was witnessed on St. George's Field last evening when the Methodist Guards and Catholic Cadet Corps tried conclusions. Though it was a holiday quite a number of people were present and a fairly good game was the result. The Guards won hands down. A strong wind prevailed from the westward and the Guards played with the wind in their favour. Their excellent play was a surprise to the C. C. C. Barrett and Goody notched up two goals so quickly that the Cadets thought it was going to rain goals. When the teams crossed the C. C. C. now with the wind in their favor, bombarded the Guards' goal the whole time. Corners were well placed by Hart and Brien, but the Cadets could not pass the forwards of the Guards, who put up a splendid defence in the second half. When the referee's whistle blew the Guards were victors by 2 goals to nil. The Cadets took their medicine like men and going to the Guards dressing room cheered them cordially. Later this was reciprocated, when the Guards came to the Cadet room. Fraternized with the lads and cheered them to the echo. It is thought that the rate should realize over $100, which will be devoted to the new armory for the Methodist Guards. The Cadets will not soon forget the generosity of the Guards in putting the Guard at their disposal in the recent Regatta, and later they hope to help the M. G. B. in various ways. The line-up of the team was:

M.G.B.—Goal: Wornell; backs, Peet, Barrett; halves, C. Quick, Squires, Taylor; forwards, Gear, Goody, Quick, Maddock and Tucker.

C.C.C.—Goal, H. Phelan; backs, Walsh, Thompson; halves, Christopher, W. Hart, Gladney; forwards, B. Hart, Woods, F. Phelan, Evans.

Mr. E. S. Pinsent refereed in a most satisfactory manner.

One of the finest Shampoo Soaps we have seen is Williams' Pine Tar Soap. The soap made by the J. B. Williams Co., Glastonbury, Conn., rank very high among American soaps, and this Tar Soap is a typical specimen of their soap-making art, and is a splendid lathering soap which will thoroughly clean the hair and scalp of all dust, scurf and dandruff, and greatly refresh the user. The odor even of this Pine Tar Soap is pleasant and health-giving. Price 15 cents a cake; 40 cts. a box of three cakes.

Pyrethrum Insect Powder is the most "killing" article of the class, and will quickly make away with flies and other insect pests in used freely in places where they frequent. Non-poisonous and non-sticky. Price 15 cents a box.

GOOD SHOOTING.—While the Cornwall was in Hare Bay, some excellent gunnery work was done. The ship's gunners hit a target 6 times in 22 1/2 seconds, which is a record performance.
