The Am. Novel of 1915.

MICHAEL O'HALLORHAN
 by Gene Stratton Porter.

This is the story of Mickey the news-boy and his ward-peacher, whom he found with a crippled back and cried for until she was cured. It tells of Mickey's part in the romance of Douglas Bruce and Leslie Winton; and of the kindness of Peter Harding and his wife to peacher, and finally of Mickey's own love story with the walf he found years before.

The book possesses, like all of the author's works, a deep feeling for nature, the charm of the woods, the flowers and all growing things.

Paper 65c; cloth 90c. Not a dull page in all the 500 pages.

A Money-Saver For You.

If you are an Employer or an Office Manager, who is on the alert for devices that will enable your present Office force and equipment to increase their daily output, with a decrease in the effort required of each person affected, you will be interested in LINE-A-TIME.

LINE-A-TIME is a simple device, it may be quickly adapted for use with any typewriter, and may be placed on any desk.

It stands behind and close to the machine, and supports the copy. LINE-A-TIME serves the Triple Purpose of increasing the Typist's Capacity 30 to 50 per cent., daily improving the quality of her work, and saving her health.

It increases the output 30 to 50 per cent., because it enables the operator to utilize for transcribing the time she would otherwise spend bending over note book or record sheet.

It enables the typist to be comfortable and free from fatigue. It has but a few parts and is simple in construction.

Its life for service is practically unlimited, and it requires but little care. May we demonstrate it to you?
