Capt. Carty Returns.

Capt. G. T. Carty, who left here in charge of the last contingent, returned by yesterday's express. Captain Carty reports the trip across on board the Sicilian was all that could be desired; the distance from here to Liverpool was covered in 7 days. At the latter port the men were drafted to the Regimental quarters at Avr where they are now in training. On visiting Wandsworth and other hospitals in London, Capt. Carty was pitals in London, capt surprised to hear that a large number of our wounded soldiers had again reported for duty, while those still confined to hospital were in the best of spirits. As a result of a railway accident on Aug 11th, while en route from London to Liverpool in company with Mr. J. A. Clift, K.C., particulars of which appeared in yesterday's Telegram, Capt. Carty's lug gage was held up on the other side.
