Ye Christmase Logge.

In "Merrie England" the Yule log—never called that, by the way, but the Yule Clog, the Christmas Batch, or Block—was a great institution. The "clog" was laid in some time before Christmas, was generally of birch, barked and dried, and of no meagre dimensions. It was lighted on Christmas Eve, and what was not consumed by Christmas night was saved and burnt on Christmas Day. It was deemed very lucky to preserve a piece wherewith to light next year's clog. There was a custom that so long as the Yule clog burned the servants had a right to demand ale at their meals. This may or may not account for the superstitious clogs. One old writer says that they burnt for eight days!

The ecclesiastical authorities of the past did not look kindly on the burning of the Yule clog. "The biases," in their opinion, were "foolish and

A Merry Xmas

This store says Merry Christmas to all its Friends!

That means a lot of People, too!

Now here's a Christmas Suggestion that is a practical and sensible one—

Shoe up the entire Family for Christmas.

A far better proposition than wasting money on useless gifts!

For instance—

A pair of Warm Arctics for Grandpa—comfort Shoes for Grandma—House Slippers for Mother—Dress Slippers for Sister—Skating Boots for Brother, or Rubber Boots.

Splendid Suggestion!

Don't you think so?

THE DAY IN DAY OUT

This is the season of gift-giving. Our minds are strongly turned to the thought of what we have to give in a material way. Is it not, then, a happy time to give a few moments' what we have to give in another way,—in the way of personality?

Wasn't That a Beautiful Gift!

Think of giving such a gift day in day out to all the people with whom you come into contact!

We all know what a wonderful gift to all those whose lives touch the life of the possessor, a happy personality is. Happiness is heart sunshine. To go from the presence of a discontented, unhappy person into that of a happy cheerful person is like having the sun come out on a dull day.

Their Atmosphere Meant More Than Comforts.

A beautiful love is always a gift to those who are privileged to come into its sphere of influence. A friend of a school teacher friend of mine, boards at the home of an elderly couple. Their home is a simple one and several finer homes would be open to her, but she stays on with her first friends. I asked her once why it was that she stayed and she
