Beef-A strong undertone still prevails in the Beef market with Boneless market. Some packers there are "sold Lawrence route in November. Ample up to the end of January." Local demand from now till May next will be been supplied. Prices are: Libby's Special Family $39.50, Boneless $34.50, and Choice Plate $24.00.

molasses as the outport requirements have been nearly all supplied for the winter. Prices have been further reduced by Importers this week to meet the changed situation. Choice molasses is now quoted at $1.30 per gallor wholesale, and Fancy $1.35 per gallon. The reports of the new crop received so far, indicate a shortage, but in any case, prices will have to be influenced by the lower sugar rates.

Flour-The Wheat markets advanced last week and the cost of future shipments is nearly in line with prices ruling on the spot. The position o Wheat is showing stronger tendency and importers are advised that advances are probable, and it looks as if flour has reached its lowest point

Meeting. NEW HALL TO BE ERECTED. rmoury, it was decided that a new Thursday last, should be rected on the old site. President Martin was in the chair and over 300 Mr. W. F. Trelegan is chairman and Mr. T. Kelly, Secretary. This committee will immediately make arrangements for having plans drawn up for the new hall, and it is hoped that the building will be completed by next September. Owing to the destruction of the hall the Golden Jubilee celebration has been postponed until the opening of the new hall, which will make the event a still greater attraction in the Soci- was more than a mere spirit of freeety's history. It was decided, however, to hold a church parade on fervor which seemed to say, "it is January 6th, attending 11 o'clock good to be here." Two addresses were mass in the R. C. Cathedral, and it given; one by the Rev. Dr. Bond, and is expected the parade will be the one by the Rev. Dr. Curtis, and each largest in the Society's history. Investigating he found that a window in the rear of the store had been broken. Mr. Day immediately notified 'the police, who after arrival saw that the place had been burglarized. Mr. Jackman was called and a cursory glance showed him that the thief or thieves had gotten away with a considerable quantity of goods, amongst which were ragians, overcoats, underwear and several articles of jewellery. The police on making further investigation, found that the West End Bazaar, owned by Mr. Stewart, had also been entered and a quantity of goods taken.

Funeral.

The funeral of Reserve Fireman William Harvey, who lost his life at the burning of the Star of the Sea Hall took place Saturday, and was one of the most largely attended ever seen in the city. Inspector General Hutchings, a number of regular firemen, and a body guard of reserve firemen were amongst the mourners. Prayers for the dead were recited at the Cathedral and interment took place at Mount Carmel cemetery.

The Use of the Bow.

The student of the violin nearly always has one fault. There is a certain angle at which the bow should cross the strings in order to produce those vibrations which give the roundwiolin must be held so that the bow oves straight across the strings. A eviation from the correct attack proluces a scratchy tone. And it is in just this one fundamental thing, the
