Hunger strikers among persons in-perned in Bere Isid. internment camp in Bantry Bay, as a protest against their treatment, is reported by the chief Republican Liaison officer. He states that letters and parcels cannot be received in camp, and that the flour furnished is so bad that bakers refuse to make bread of it.

WHAT DID IT CONTAIN?

LONDON, July 22.

A meeting of Dominion Premiers was called hurriedly this afternoon to consider, it is understood, a reply re-ceived from Washington to-day, to re-presentations made by British Government relative to postponing disarmament and Pacific Conference to some late later than November 11. The neeting was private, and there has been no indication of the nature of

EXPERIMENT IN SOCIOLOGY. LONDON, July 22.

An interesting experiment is going be made by the Duke of York, son of King George. Two hundred public school boys, attendants of such institutions as Eton and Harrow, and another 200 lads from the workshops of Great Britain, are to be His Royal Highness as guests for a week at his nummer camp in Kent. These boys will meet on a level of perfect equality as the Duke's guests, and it is believed the result will be to foster a mutual before the same was a good laugh at times.

LONDON, July 23.

A meeting of Dali Eireaum for the purpose of considering the peace offer of British Cabinet, is looked for next week, but Sinn Fein leaders here appear to feel that ten days or more will elapse before notable developments

. GOING. IT ALONE. . . .

PARIS; July 23.

Premier Briand, following a meeting of the Council of Ministers at Rambouillet yesterday, has despatched a telegram to Berlin requesting that the German Government take all necessary steps to insure the safe conduct, through Germany, of a new division of French troops, which it is said in official circles, will be ordered to Silesia within a few hours. Instructions were sent late last night to the French Ambassador in London, requesting him to tell the British Government that France considers it useless for Allies to establish a Silesian boundary without providing sufficient troops to enforce its provisions. Several newspapers are inclined to take a more hopeful view of the deadlock this morning, and to believe that Britain will recede from her position.

Nothing But the Truth - Without Fear or Favour.

LAST NIGHT'S FIASCO. Although well boosted in all the papers and very valuable space devoted to them, the Mount Cashel Series were not played last night, and right here we want to ask President Orr WHY in great big capital letters? It appears that the League's permission was secured early yesterday to cancel the second game between the B.I.S. and Red Lions until Monday as Umptre Chesman felt that it would likely be too dark to play the double header. Why the Cubs and C.E.I. did not contest we do not know, and no one has been able to inform us. We should think, however, that if some members of any club think they can abrogate the decision of the League (under whose absolute control all games are scheduled and played) then it is about time they were made an example of. What the League wants to remember is that it is the public by their interest and support who make the game possible, and affairs like last night, which incidentally attracted a fair gathering cannot tend to do the game any good.

Our suggestion is that the two defaulting teams be made an example of, by forfeiting their right to play for the Mount Cashel trophy, and the others to go there on the day of the Garden Party to play off. It is clear that it is about Cashel trophy, and the others to go there on the day of the Garden Party to play off.
