

Many people will assent heartily to the principle that the best possible cure for a sheep-dog is to kill him at the earliest practicable moment, but there may be exceptional cases. A correspondent of the London Field seems to think so at least, and relates an instance where, after other attempts had failed, a fine Newfoundland dog was cured by tying him to two old Scotch rams, and left to such amusement as he could extract from their society. The result was an extensive ramble over hill and dale, hedges and ditches, and diversified of course by the discordant views each ram and the dog entertained as to the route for enjoying the best scenery. When all three were very tired they were loosed, and nothing thereafter was so extremely offensive to that dog's tastes as the society of sheep.

The Edinburgh Court of Session has decided that the women students at the University in that city are enabled to complete their curriculum as medical students, and to be graduated on the usual conditions. The ladies thus obtain as a right what they have long sought as a favor. The decision will put some of the professors in an awkward position, as they have declared all along that they would resign rather than teach women.

A Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic.
Without Phosphorus no thought, say the Germans, and they might add, no action, since Phosphorus and the Compounds are known to be the motive power of the nervous and muscular system. They constitute more than half the material of the human body, being found in every tissue, and their presence is absolutely essential to nutrition, as they promote the conversion of albumen in the food into fibrin, which is the vitalizing agent of pure, healthy blood. They are now coming into universal use in Europe and America in the treatment of Scrophulous, Consumptive and Venereal diseases, which are caused by impoverished or poisoned blood; and in diseases of women suffering from irregularities, obstructions and exhausting discharges, in pale, puny children, and that condition of nervous and physical prostration resulting from bad habits, excessive use of stimulants and tobacco, and all that train of evils known as fast life. The great reliability and promptness in its effects in immediately and permanently restoring the debilitated constitution has made DR. WHELEHAN'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES and CALISAYA a great favorite with the Physicians and Public. Sold at $1.00.
