GREAT MASS MEETING.

The grand final rally of the campaign will be held in the Queen's Avenue Rink to-morrow (Saturday) night. That it will be a splendid meeting is assured as the speakers are:

Hon. S. H. Blake, Q.C., Toronto.

Thomas S. Hobbs.

C. S. Hyman, M.P.

George C. Gibbons, Q.C.

The Hon. Samuel Blake is one of the most able and effective orators in Canada, as London people know. His presence alone insures a vast crowd. The rink will be cool and fully equipped with seats. It will seat an audience of 3,000 people with ease. Let the friends of the London citizen candidate turn out en masse. The supporters of the Toronto candidate are cordially invited.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS

—Lawn social at Christ Church grounds to-night.

—Mr. W. R. Pennick, of Shannonville, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Findlay, Springbank.

—Miss Helena Ginard, of Lockport, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Capt.
Foster, Woodbine.

—Bishop O'Connor, London, and twenty priests presented the awards to the pupils of St. Mary's Academy, Windsor, on Wednesday.

—George Humpidge, son of Mr. W. J.
Humpidge, of the London House, city, was the young man rescued by Dr. J. S. McKay at Port Stanley a few days since.

—The St. Thomas papers say the statement of a contemporary that Rev. Charles Smith, city, was threatened with a lockout if he essayed to preach in the Central Church there is grossly exaggerated. The letter sent to Mr. Smith was written by the recording steward of the quarterly board, Mr. Cronk, in a kind spirit, contained no threats or hints of a lockout, explained that no sentiment hostile to Mr.
Smith existed, but suggested that it might be well if he would delay further action until a final decision was reached. A satisfactory arrangement will no doubt be made.

—A couple long and happy life. Rev. Mr.
Gundy, of the Wellington Street Methodist Church, performed the ceremony.

—Calverley Performs.

Ten thousand people cheered Calverley, when for the first time since his accident he appeared on his wire, 85 feet high, at Ontario Beach, N. Y. As he performed the same programme of feats as last year, no one, according to the Rochester papers, would have imagined that he had ever had but pleasant experiences on the wire; and although he has practiced but little at Rosedale, he displayed all his old-time ability.

ATTITUDE OF THE CANDIDATES.

The following correspondence, in reply to questions sent by the secretary of the London and Western Ontario Prohibition Union to the two city candidates, has been handed to the press for publication:

E. W. Daly, Esq., Dufferin avenue, London, Ont.

My Dear Sir,—In reply to your letter, asking my answer to certain questions on the subject of prohibition and the regulation of the liquor traffic, I beg to say that the policy of my party and myself has been publicly announced, and by it I intend to stand.

My position in my party renders it improper that I should give any pledges other than those which I give publicly, and which I trust may be found satisfactory to the temperance men and women of the Province. Faithfully yours,

W. R. MEREDITH.
London, Ont., June 20, 1894.

E. W. Daly, Esq., 536 Dufferin avenue, city:

Dear Sir,—I have your communication in which, as secretary of the London Western Ontario Prohibition Union, you ask my attitude respecting prohibition and the license question.

In reply I may say: First, in general terms, that, as you are aware, the Premier of the Province has promised, if the courts decide that he has the jurisdiction in the matter, to bring in such prohibitory legislation as will comply with the voice of the people as embodied in the plebiscite vote of last January. I should certainly feel it my duty to heartily support the honorable Premier in carrying out to the full every pledge he has given and I need scarcely add that my principles would not change if there should be a change of government.

As to the proposal to go back to some form of municipal control of licenses I consider it a very important question, and if elected to the Ontario Legislature, I will do all I can to prevent the transference of the control of the liquor traffic and the responsibility for the enforcement of laws relating to it from the Provincial Government to any local body. To do so would be to demoralize every municipal council in Ontario. It would not be fair either to license holders or to temperance people.

I am of opinion that, as a license law, the Crooke Act is the best that has yet been devised. Respectfully yours,

THOMAS S. HOBBS.
