Discuss the Attitude They Will Assume in Case Greece Is Blockaded.

London, April 5 .- An important meeting of the leaders of the Liberal party was held at noon today at the residence of Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt, the Liberal leader in the House of ommons. The Earl of Kimberley, the iberal leader in the House of Lords; the Marquis of Ripon, who was Se retary of State for the Colonies in the Rosebery Cabinet; Earl Spencer, the First Lord of Admiralty of the last Liberal Administration, and Mr. John Morley, Lord Rosebery's Chief Secretary for Ireland, were present. They discussed for an hour the attitude which they would assume in the event of the warships of Great Britain taking part in the projected blockade of the Guif of Athens.

Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt is now restored to health, and was able to attend today's session of the House of Commons.

London, April 5.-The Parliamentary Secretary for the Foreign Office, Mr. George N. Curzon, was asked several questions today in the House of Com-mons, on the subject of Crete. He said that all the powers, excepting Germany, would be represented in Crete by military forces, and that all the powers, without exception, would be represented in Cretan waters by a Continuing, Mr. Curzon said her Majesty's Government had not received official explanation as to why Germany was not sending troops to Crete, but her participation in the European concert was testified to by the sending of a German man-of-war to the island. overcome, but was taken out alive.

Chillicothe, Ohio, April 5 .- The remarkable feat of one man hypnotizing another by telephone with a distance of 50 miles between them was successfully accomplished yesterday in the presence of a number of newspaper men and doctors.

The operator was Sylvian Lee and the subject Samuel Story, of this city. Dispatch office in that city called up Story by the long distance telephone When the latter answered, Lee commanded him to go to sleep, and also that a portion of the right wrist b deadened to all sensation. Story mediately lapsed into a hypnotized slumber. Mayor Waddle then ran a hat pin through the deadened portion The subject did not experience the slightest pain, and not rop of blood flowed from the wound When the pin was removed the mark

The telephone receiver was there placed to Story's ear again, and at the command of Lee he immediately

The Manhattan Oil Company has just leased a suite of rooms in the Spitzer building, and will soon remo a portion of its office force here. s generally understood among the oil men that this is the first move toward the removal of the Manhattan headquarters to Toledo entirely. A combination of the Manhattan and Cudahy interests, the leading oil men say, would mean that the amalgamated concern and rival of the Standard Oil Company would maintain two general headquarters, one in Chicago and the other in Toledo. This combination proposes to contest the entire oil pro duction and field with the Standard It is understood that Frank Holmes will be placed in charge of the Manhattan's headquarters here, and that some time during the present year the entire business, so far as office interests are concerned will come here Th oil companies have had men here sev eral times recently looking over the field.
