Rev. J. G. Stuart, B.A., delivered a lecture on "Our Name, or What Is in Our Name." He congratulated them on having such a successful gathering. "A name," he said, "presents an idea of the person or thing spoken of. When men get into difficulties they change their name. It was so in Jacob's case and in others, and this signifies that they don't want to be dishonored. But men are also named that good may result. It looks like sarsaparilla, smells like sarsaparilla, tastes like sarsaparilla, it is sarsa...... Stop! What is the name on the bottle? Is it Ayer? Then it is sarsaparilla; the best that is made. But the other kind, that looks and smells and tastes like sarsaparilla. What is it? That's it., It's whatisit. It's a conundrum. Give it up. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, alone, is made exclusively from the imported Honduran sarsaparilla plant, the variety richest in medicinal value and healing power. Possibly, this is why one bottle of Ayer's does as much work as three bottles of any other kind. At least, that is what people say who've tried others, and then tried Ayer's. Some go farther. There's George Smith, Druggist, of Seymour, Conn., for example, who writes: "I will guarantee more benefit from one bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla than by using half a dozen bottles of any other kind." That's the sort of record Ayer's Sarsaparilla is living up Others imitate the remedy; they can't imitate the record—50 years of cures.

Mr. McGugan's nomination was then made unanimous by a standing vote. The result was lustily cheered. The chairman tendered Mr. McGugan the nomination. Mr. McGugan returned his sincere thanks for the honor conferred upon him, and accepted the nomination amid more cheers. Ald. up by asking the delegates to go to W -216 Dundas street, work with a vim to elect the man of Cairneross & Lawrence, druggists. Telephone their choice. Mr. John Cameron was called on, and also spoke briefly. He warned the Liberals against "slipping a cog" in any constituency. They all wanted to see Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, along with Sir Oliver Mowat, in charge of the affairs of the country at Ottawa and to that end it was the duty of every individual to help to do away with the long Conservative reign of corruption, gerrymander and unfair franchise bills. (Applause.) Mr. Glennie also spoke, expressing his pleasure at the solution of the matter, and that the candidate was a Caradoc man. He referred to Mr. Mc-Gugan's sacrifice of home and other pleasures in accepting the nomination, and thanked those present who had mentioned his name. In closing, he eulogized the candidate as a hard worker for good and honest govern-

Mr. Crozier was sure that Mr. Mc Gugan would be elected, because he rode down with him. He thanked all for voting for Mr. McGugan, who was an honest man, and he was only afraid that if he went to Ottawa he would learn other ways. (Laughter.) Mr. Kaiser was also well pleased with the result of the convention. He wished to avoid a three-cornered fight, and again expressed his pleasure at the nomination of the ex-warden of Middlesex. Mr. Alex. Stuart, Glencoe, also spoke saying that disaster to South Middlesix had been averted, and he hoped that everyone would work together in harmony for the election of his neighbor, Mr. McGugan. They all knew of the gross wrongs perpetrated by Conservative party, and he asked all to sink any animosity in the fight for Liberal principles, even going so far as to make sacrifices if necessary. Chief Cornellus Logan, a very inelligent Indian speaker, made a force ible address. He spoke about the re-cent quarreling at Ottawa, and warned the electors of South Middlesex not to imitate them. After speaking of the great necessity of united action, he said that if it had not been for Indian aid in the war of 1812, Canada would be divided into different countries. He asked for fair play for the Indians, and hoped that Mr. McGugan would do all in his power to remove the unfair discriminations against the red men in regard to the liquor laws.

Chief Elijah Ninham asked that the strong men of the riding should come to the reserves and show the red men how to vote. He detailed the gradual absorption of the franchise workings not drink, but thought that the Indiessed the meeting. He admitted that dian should not be discriminated

George Fisher, another Indian, concluded the speech-making. Chairof thanks, and the meeting adjourned with the usual cheers. THE CANDIDATE.
