STOCK MARKETS. H. C. Becher, broker, Bank of Com-nerce building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today: New York, March 8-Noon,-While the market has been comparatively narrow during the forenoon session, the tone has been relatively a good one, and the net results have been generally satisfactory. The high prices of the first hour have not been maintained in every case, but prices above yesterday's closing in a number of issues. There is not much activity, trading being even less than yesterday. The traction stocks were very strong and Brooklyn Rapid Transit and Manhattan had an advance of a point. Part of this was lost, however, some of e buying of the tractions was good, and there was asemblance of activity and much bullish gossip. There was an early advance in Wabash, preferred, due, pos sibly to the announcement that a large block of that stock had been taken over by the Missouri Pacific, in addition to its former holdings. There was some activity in Southern Railway, and buying was said to be for good interests. Sugar was comparatively dull. London did very little, but a selling movement developed in Pennsylvania, which was attributed to a rumor that the company would issue $20,000,000 car trust certificates in the immediate future. This rumor could not be
