CROWD GOT RAW DEAL
INSTEAD OF TUG-OF-WAR

Perrin-C. P. R. Struggle Did Not Materialize, But No Money Was Refunded to Three Hundred People Who Gathered to Witness It.

One of the rawest deals ever perpetrated on the public in London was the so-called tug-of-war match between the C.P.R. and Perrin teams for the city championship at the Y. M. C. A. last evening. A crowd numbering close on to three hundred gathered to see the match, which has been widely advertised during the past two or three months by various letters and challenges and side bets between the two teams. But there was no match. Neither did the crowd get its money back.

The whole fizzle arose over the C. P. R. team protesting one of the Perrin team's men. An agreement had been drawn up between the two teams in which there was a clause making a man ineligible if he had not resided in the city for a year previous to the match. An exception was made in the case of R. Jordan, a C. P. R. man, who recently moved into the city from the county. This agreement was drawn up, and signed by the C. P. R. people last week.

When it was tendered to the Perrin people an additional clause prohibiting men who had not worked for the firm for a year had been added, Perrin objected. They then made an effort to hold a meeting and get the matter straightened up. Accordingly a meeting was held on Friday evening.

A Meeting Called. The meeting was called hurriedly, and it was not until Friday afternoon that Mr. A. T. Taylor, of the Y. M. C. A., sent out word to each team to have representatives at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night. The Perrin people informed Mr. Taylor they would be present. Secretary St. Clair, of the C. P. R., said he would be there, or, in case he could not come, would have some other representative of the C. P. R. present. It turned out that Mr. Evans, of the Perrin team, and Mr. Taylor were the only ones on hand. No C. P. R. representative put in an appearance. Mr. Evans and Mr. Taylor waited until 9:30 o'clock, and then left. Had the C. P. R. been present the affair of last evening would have been avoided.

C. P. R. Protested. When it came time for the match, the C. P. R. team protested one of Perrin's men, Frank McGill, they claimed he had not worked at Perrin's for a year, a clause that the Perrin people claim had been added to the original agreement. However, it was not McGill that the C. P. R. team were after, but another member of the Perrin team, named Bryce, who has been in the city about six months, during which time he has been employed at the Perrin factory. But the C. P. R. people thought it was McGill, who has been employed at Perrin's for a little over nine months. They refused to pull if McGill was on the Perrin team. Perrin tried in vain to compromise. They would have pulled under protest, in any manner possible, with their original team, which included McGill, but this would not suit the C. P. R. The railway employees gave the crowd no consideration. People had paid good money to see a tug-of-war, not a talk-of-war, and these people had rights.

Finally the Perrin team left the building. They had agreed to pull an exhibition or any other kind of a pull, providing they could use McGill, who has long been a member of the team. Seeing that all hope of arriving at a

EMPIRE BRASS TEAM
LOST AT SARNIA

Game Was Played on Soft Ice, But Was Fast in Spots—Score Was 3 to 2.

Sarnia, Dec. 31.—The Empire Brass team, of the London Manufacturers' League, was defeated at St. Andrew's rink here last evening by the local intermediates, the score being 3 to 2. Although the ice was very soft, the game was fast in spots, and both teams made a good impression. The local team also looks good, and on hard ice should prove a hard team to beat. The store of the visitors were Arthur, Thorne and Watts, while Wilson, Thorne and McEellan were the best for Sarnia. Defending were few, Deane and Draper, of the Empire Brass, were the best. The game was satisfactory. The teams were: Empire Brass—Goal, Watts; point, Ryan; cover, point, Crowley; centre, Baintyne; rover, McPherson; left wing, Arthur; right wing, Thorne. The game was played on soft ice, and Collingwood, doing three minutes each for tripping, while simple, of Midland, was going off for the same thing while the bell rang. Referee Caldwell was fair, and refereed a good game, keeping both teams well under control. Collingwood—Goal, goal; point, goal; centre, goal; rover, goal; left wing, goal; right wing, goal. Midland—Goal, goal; point, goal; centre, goal; rover, goal; left wing, goal; right wing, goal. Referee—Gren Caldwell.

FARRELL LEAVES FOR CALIFORNIA

Will See Frank Chance and Arrange Terms With Him for Yankee's Job.

New York, Dec. 30.—Frank Farrell, president of the New York American League Club, probably will leave for California early next week to consult with the former manager of the Chicago Nationals on the subject of Chicago coming here to take charge of the Highlanders. Mr. Farrell said today that he was greatly interested in Chance's letter of last week to Charles Williams, treasurer of the Chicago Nationals, in which he said he wanted "enough money to make it worth while" to come to New York and manage the Highlanders. Mr. Farrell added that he knew the New York public would be greatly disappointed if he failed to get Chance, and declared that he would do everything in his power to get the Californian in line for the managerial berth here. He added that the time for dickering was nearly through, and he desired to know where he stood in the matter. If he could not get Chance, he said, it would not give him much time to hunt for another manager.

At the recent Southern League meeting a new plan for sliding scale salary limit was proposed, but turned down. It was to be graded according to the players' record. A team carrying the full limit of 18 men was to have a limit of $2,500; one carrying 17 men a limit of $2,400, and so on down to a limit of $1,000. This, it was argued, would benefit the less prosperous clubs. Another idea was that it was worse than no salary limit at all.

President Quinn stated that Cleghorn's case was an example to other players, and the punishment for any other such infraction that came up for him to deal with would be much more severe. He was of the opinion that Cleghorn had been sufficiently punished for his first offence.

IN INDOOR BASEBALL LEAGUE

C. in the first contest by the score of 18 to 11, and the First Hussars were the victors in the second affair, by the score of 12 to 6. M'CARTY AND PALZER
ARE BOTH "ON EDGE"

Two More Perfectly Trained Boxers Have Never Been Seen—Palzer a Slight Favorite, Although Opinion Is Pretty Evenly Divided.

Los Angeles, Dec. 30.—Two more perfectly-trained boxers than Al Palzer and M'Carty have never been seen in a southern California ring. For three days M'Carty has been "on edge." Palzer deemed it necessary to go through with a hard workout this afternoon, but at the finish announced himself as ready for a "regiment like M'Carty."

So far as physical condition is concerned both of the big boys are at the top of the line. The loser will have no alibi.

The managers, Billy McCreary and Tom O'Rourke, came into the Spring street headquarters, watched the line of ticket purchasers for a few minutes and then went away satisfied with the world in general and the Los Angeles boxing world in particular.

"M'Carty will work a bit tomorrow, just to keep himself out of mischief," said McCreary. "We have no doubt that he will be able to do it, but we are not going to let anything that's to be done and said everything to be said. We are ready for the fight."

"I just came in to pick another $500 bet," explained O'Rourke. "I'm covering myself. I think Palzer is the biggest clump in the world to beat this city. He's a real business man."

Are Guessing. The M'Carty-Palzer engagement has the entire coast sport-fighting fraternity in a state of perpetual guessing.

"Who do you like?" is the daily song along Spring street. It is a question that has followed the boxing game for years, sport writers, managers and trainers, all are "up in the air" over the result of Wednesday's clash.

"If M'Carty is such a killer, why didn't he stop Jim Flynn when he had the firman dangle, groggy and helpless?" is a question that has been asked over and over again.

To answer this, M'Carty's friends claim that Flynn is the toughest man in America. They point to the fact that Sam Langford, in the Vernon bout, could not stop Flynn with one punch, but had to gradually wear him down and stop him.

Palzer is a slight favorite. That if the New Year's day clash has a knockout finish, Palzer will be the man. The popular opinion is that M'Carty may be able to outpoint Big Al, the latter stands a good chance of wearing Luther down and stopping him.

Then, too, during the past 24 hours Palzer has been credited with being a clever boxer. Perhaps this is an angle that M'Carty's friends will keep covered up, but Al's work in the ring during the final moments of his preparation has opened the eyes of those who looked upon him only as a mauler.

Through all the excitement of the past two days M'Carty has remained calm and smiling. If the younger man has a nerve in his body he hasn't shown it.
