WOMEN and THE HOME

RABBITS GIVE UP COATS FOR HATS

Sweaters Are Also Popular For Sportswoman Who Shoots.

By AILEEN LAMONT. Special to The Advertiser. Copyright.

New York, July 25.—Coney Island scorns to high hat the other summer street, resorts, but Coney Island once was Montreal. the source of supply of most of the American beaver hats because of its innumerable rabbits. The very latest small sport hat is also of coney, the effrontery to claim it is pro-hats are right at hand. When a girl nowadays says shoot, of women are taking up trap shoot- union last week. ing. It is one of the few sports for which women still wear sweaters.

The trap shots pullover, however, has an Eton collar, tight wristbands and a leather pad covering the right arm-

What could a poor girl do? That is if she had unbobbed hair and a disinclination for a heavy, hot browhard and a desire to play tennic. We band and a desire to play tennis. Mrs.
Satterwaite, the English player, solved the problem. She wears a broad eye shade, much like that affected by Helen Wills, but kept in place by a very heavy, loose-meshed family of West Zorra were recent

The society miss may not get out of the feathers early, but she has to get into them early in the afternoon. That is if she wears one fetching new chiffon scarfs, the two ends of which are covered with a quadruple row of shaded ostrich fronds. With this is carried an

BIBLE SCHOOLS AGAIN HAVE SPLENDID AVERAGE

Mothers Are Also Taking Enthusiastic Interest in Work.

The various vacation Bible schools being held in the city have been most successfully carried on during the past weeks, and last week brought, shortly for a month's stay at Waubauchene, once more, a splendid average in the attendance. St. James' Anglican headed the list with 95 per cent, while Ezerton street Baptist had 75 per McCallum, Queen's avenue. cent and Wellington United 38 per cent. Mothers are also enjoying the vaca-Mothers are also enjoying the vacation schools. Recently a most enthusiastic meeting of interested women met in the Wellington United church and discussed the work being Simcoe. done. They were delighted with the success and praised both leaders and delightfully. Miss Douglas told of her daily program, which is being enthusiastically taken up by the children. Miss Mamie Young, in a short address, told of a little church in which was instituted interest in the children. From this the present vacation schools have been worked up to its present success.

Morris, who spoke briefly on the en- Mary Brown of Rochester, N.Y., are couragement Mr. Hibbert had given the mothers after a recent prayer Dundas street.

Closing the afternoon was a cur of tea, over which the guests chatted informally on the topic of the day Mrs. F. B. Gorwill poured out tea. Sc greatly was the afternoon enjoyed that the mothers are more than willing to have another session, at which time they will supply the afternoon tea instead of the instructresses of

NO BURNS OR SCOTT HAD KNOX NOT LIVED

Continuing his study of leaders of chose John Knox, "the champion of Protestantism in Scotland," as his subject yesterday morning.

Pointing to the fact that Carlyle has placed Knox as the peer of all Scotchmen, Mr. Miller observed that, had it not been for Knox, there probably would not have been a Robert Burns or a Sir Walter Scott. He commented upon Knox's steadfastness of principle in the face of great physical hardships, and declared him to have been just the type of man his age and ages since needed. John Knox. Mr. Miller affirmed, lived full of faith in God, and so he died full of trust and peace. NEW COLOR FOR STAMPS.

Ten cents postage stamps will have new color, says a despatch from the postal department at Ottawa today. The present color is blue. As soon as the stock on hand has been used the new issue, in light brown.

Social and Personal

Mrs. J. I. A. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Weld, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest

Mrs. J. J. Foot and her daughter,

Roberts, and Mrs. T. Etheredge.

Mr. J. H. McLeod of Negrites, land Park, on Lake Michigan's shore

Miss Margaret Buchanan, Hale street, entertained St. George's choir last week on the occasion of their practice night. During the course of the evening the members presented Miss Eleanor Clarke, the soprane soloist, with a handsome parasol in

Mrs. Clarence Foreman and her to Waterloo, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Fore-man leave shortly for their summer

A delightful surprise was recently home in the Georgian Bay district.

tendered Mr. and Mrs. Ponting

Maple street, when a number of their friends gathered at their home for a social evening, which was spent in dancing and games. The guests in cluded Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Menaugh and daughter, Mrs. F.

Creasy of Comber, Miss Amy Oliver of St. Thomas, Miss Joyce Demaray of

Dorchester, Miss Florence Dennis of

Burgessville, Miss Eleanor Dickenson

of Wallaceburg, Miss Annie Dyer of

of Lawrence Station, Miss Erma Leth of Tavistock, Miss Alberta Roberts of

St. Thomas, Miss Helen Seale of Lu-

Frieda Taylor of Sarnia, Miss Blanche

Vanstone of Lambeth, Miss Winnifred Winter of Hyde Park, Miss Grace of Wingham Miss Candace Foxton trolia, Miss Adeline Thompson of Windsor, Miss Ruth S. Thompson of small vases of sweet peas were also used effectively on the table. Miss Edith Copp officiated at the cutting of the ices, assisted by Miss Adeline Orchard and Miss M. Richmond. The

Craig, Mrs. Freeland, Mrs. N. Thompson, Mrs. George Young, Mrs.

W. Parkinson, Miss B. Fontaine, Mis

Matthews will be accompanied to Cal-ifornia by her father and brother.

WEDDINGS

bouquet of Sunset roses and baby's breath. Miss Eva Murphy attended her as bridesmaid, wearing a pretty frock of mauve georgette, large white crepe hat and pink roses. Mr. Thomas Crowley, jun., attended the groom. The church was effectively decorted for the occasion with gladioli, roses, carnations and sweet peas.

Following the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding breakfast was served. Here again gladioli, roses, carnations and sweet peas were roses, carnations and sweet peas were used with pretty effect. Later Mr. and Mrs. Howitt left for a motor trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto, the bride travelling in a smart ensemble of olive green, with small white hat. On their return they will reside on Rectory street, this city.

oodstock, Miss Catherine Lawrence

oken of her services.

Hart, Mich.

Mrs. J. Mills of Hamilton is a guest Lenore Mitchell, also of this city, with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown. will be their guest. Miss Margaret Kerr is a guest with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thompson have freturned to Detroit after a happy visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton, Wharncliffe road, and other friends in the city. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hipple in Sarnia. Miss Marjorie Harper, Princess visit and 1 Mr. C. R. Walker of Becher street spent the week-end in Detroit. Mrs. Kathleen Harper of Colborne street plans to go to New York for the first two weeks in August. Miss Isabel McDowell, Waterloo is a guest with friends in

Miss Marjorie Schmidt, Dufferin est small sport nat is also of coney, avenue, is holidaying with friends in Port Colborne. Miss Audrey Darling of Ridout duced from the skins of Angora rab-bits. Danbury, Conn., and Orange, Mrs. J. C. Miles of Barrie is a N. J., are far from Angora, but the guest with Mrs. Charles Robertson Dorinda street.

Mr. George Barge of London was a she may really mean it. For scores guest in Sarnia for the old boys' re-

Mrs. J. Chivas of this city was a recent guest of Britannia, Lake of Miss Hambly is leaving next week for Port Elgin, where she will spend a month's vacation with her sister. Miss Vera James and Miss M. Mc-Leod are holidaying with friends at Erie Rest. Port Stanley.

Miss Margaret McMillan of Grey street is a holiday guest with friends at Erie Rest, Port Stanley. Mr. and Mrs. Carson Fleming and guests with friends in London. Miss Marjorie Wallace, William street, is a guest in Windsor with her aunt, Mrs. George Livingston. Mrs. F. G. McAllister and children of Sherwood avenue are spending a few days with friends in Toronto. Mrs. J. M. Broderick and her daughter Betty of Regina are guests with Mrs. L. Mahler. Wolfe street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Watson of Crain.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Watson of Crain. Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Watson of Craig street are spending a month at their summer cottage near Somora, on the River St Clair. Mrs. Ed. Harris of Brantford is a guest with her brother, Mr. Fred Grigg and Mrs. Grigg, Wharncliffe Mrs. Frances Sharp of New York city, has been spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. E. Colgan, Princess avenue. Miss Annie Elliott of Dufferin avenue is visiting with Mrs. E. N. King of this city, at her summer home at Ipperwash Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Darling of Ridout street south are leaving

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hewlett of Hamilton are expected in the city shortly to be guests with Mrs. H. A.

Mr. James Reid and Mr. William Berry, Essex street, are holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. S. Buckle in

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miles Boston recently visited in the city, guests with the former's sister, Mrs. Lionel Eliot, South London. Mrs. E. Davis and Mrs. H. W. Hay Miss Nora Sullivan of Kerwood, Miss children in their interest.

Rev. Mr. Hibbert, the new pastor of the church, was highly commended for his interest in the system by Mr. Miss Lydia Chambers and Miss Barnard of Fordwich, Miss Mildred Barons of Belmont, Miss Mina Currie Barons of Belmont, Miss Mina Currie meeting in the church.

The afternoon was varied in its H. Pratt and daughter Mildred were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Saylor and Mr. Petrolia, Miss Gertrude Smith of Peprogram. Mrs. D. A. McKay sang guests in Sarnia last week with Mr. Miss Jean Stride, Alexandra apartments, and Miss Marcella Hodges, Delaware. Charles street, are guests at the Nepahwin-Gregory, Muskoka. Miss Maude Walker, Alexandra apartments, leaves shortly on a holiday trip to Duluth, making the trip up the Great Lakes on the Noronic. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Johannes of Cathcart street, accompanied by their daughter, Miss June Johannes, are

Mrs. Strathearn Hay of Toronto is a guest with her father, Sir Adam Beck, at Headley. Mr. Hay was pending their holidays near Sombra, with her for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and little daughter, Eleanor, of Gerrard street, have returned from a pleasant holiday spent at Britannia, Lake of guests included Miss E. Copp. Miss B. Courtis, Miss A. Morlock, Miss N. Paynter, Miss A. Dodgson, Miss R. Dambra, Miss M. Foster, Miss N. Dobbyn, Miss V. Dobbyn, Miss N. Piercy, Miss A. Bisbee, Miss M. Dewer, Miss M. Richmond, Mrs. C. Craig, Mrs. Freeland, Mrs. C. Craig, Mrs. Freeland, Mrs. C. Mrs. G. F. Stevenson and daugh-Presbyterian, Methodist and Conters, the Misses Alice and Wilma gregational churches, Rev. C. S. Mil-Stevenson of Hamilton recently ler, M.A., B.D., Beecher United church, visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brymner, in this city.

Mrs. T. C. Duncan has returned to the city from Quebec city, where she has been visiting. While there she

Mrs. Albert J. Wistow, who before her recent marriage was Miss Doris Thorogood, and Mr. Wistow are spending the week-end at Niagara Falls.

Mr. George Lethbridge, Princess avenue, is holidaying in Glencoe, while Mrs. Lethbridge and their Mr. and Mrs. D. Steele have turned to their home on Weston street after a delightful motor trip around Lake Ontario and to the Thousand Island district.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cronyn and children of Waterloo street north are going to Sauble Beach for part of August. Mrs. Cronyn's sister, Miss

A tea your grocer recommends is usually good tea

TEA"is good tea"

And most grocers recommend it.

Sportswomen of London

Mrs. E. D. Bate.

MRS. E. D. BATE,

of the London Tennis club team, and live, since you came. an enthusiast over the game. she is at play at the London Tennis

Dorothy Dix

Women Who Scorn Housework and Pity the Girls Who Work in Offices Fail to See Who Are Happiest Women on Earth.

Why do we hold to the theory that Menaugh and daughter, Mis. F. Brown, the Misses Farley, Goodman, Clements, Campbell, and Floyd and Messrs. Gourley, Masterson, Buchanan, Alexander, Kerr, Hartnell, Mcanan, Alexander, Kerr, Hartnell, McCallis Claire and McFarland.

We know beyond all questioning enough, but might he not later that the necessity of earning his bread by the sweat of his brow was the consolation prize that Adam was beginning to think the consolation prize that Adam was bushand in a new light. Made we know beyond all questioning enough, but might he not later extended and that the necessity of earning his hibit some unexpected traits which summer school kindergarten classes at the Normal school are, Miss Alta Bell of St. Thomas, Miss Lucille Bruner of Leamington, Miss Mina Bryant of Strathroy, Miss Hilda

We know that the only happy man is the busy man. We know that only in constructive labor does a man find an interest that never palls and a game in which there is a perpetual thrill. We know that work is the greatest anodyne for sorrow and the best protection against temptation.

We know that as Stevenson says, "if a man loves the labor of any trade apart from any question of success or fame, the gods have called him," and he is of all men most enviable.

Windsor, Miss Ruth S. Thompson of Seaforth, Miss Theima Thompson of Petrolia and Miss Edna Weld of Delaware.

Miss Roxy Matthews, Victor street, who is leaving shortly for an indefinite sojourn in Los Angeles, was the guest of honor at a happily arranged shower given last week at the home of Mrs. Wm. Orchard, Beaconsheid avenue. The gifts, a beautiful hatbox and travelling case, were prebox and travelling case, were presented by Miss Minnie Dobbyn. Bowls of being employed in devising new of marigolds were placed about the forms of dissipation, for the young living-room, while in the dining-room man must have something to do, the table was covered with a Cluny and if he isn't bending his back in cloth and centered with a large cut glass bowl of gladioli. Silver candlesticks, bearing pink candles, and his neck in sowing a wild-oats crop.

Our attitude, however, toward women and work is diametrically opposite. We do not regard work as a good thing for women. On the contrary, we consider it a misfortune for a woman to have to work. We have even coined a phrase for it and speak of the woman who must earn her own living as a "poor working wo-

Worse still, the woman who works pities herself. The mother whose daughters go down to business every morning bewails their fate and feels that destiny has dealt most unkindly by them.

children are holiday guests at her old home in Galt.

Saturday morning, when Miss Mary daughters may live in parasitic him and many a rich old woman Saturday morning, when Miss Mary daughters may live in parasitic who sits now with empty hands that the bride of Mr. and Mrs. And Mrs. John Howitt of Newmarket. The Rev. Father Chisholm officiated in the presence of only the immediate friends.

death in order that their wives and for her to have to work than it is for her to have the her happiest days were the busy. the immediate friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a gown of honeydew crepe de chine, a large white crepe hat and shower torted view of the state of the state

All of this is a wrong and distorted view of the situation. Women need to work just as much as men do. Idleness has just as disastrous an effect upon the feminine character as it has upon the male, and among u men, as among men, the only happy, contented ones are those who are so much engrossed in

Keeps EYES Clear, Bright and Beautiful

STARVED HEARTS

By MILDRED BARBOUR.

her simple white frock and hat.

Chandler found her flushed cheeks

But when Chandler stood before

Like Barbara, in her unhappy bar spect,, and as much affection as she was able to summon.

With her hand in his, under the magnetism, she felt that her vows must be easy to fulfill.

To Be Continued.

(Copyright, 1923, Metropolitan News-

CHAPTER XXV.

In response to Chandler's urging, and shyly averted eyes bewitching. Madelon set the following Wednesday He turned frequently to look at her, for their wedding day. It would still as he drove the three of them up to leave them a few days leeway before town. Barbara noted the eagerness the arrival of Stephen Lane. Chandler seemed more anxious than Madelon to have the marriage performed be-

They planned to motor up to Los Angeles to a church of Maledon's thought that she would have given faith. Chandler confessed himself her life if this had been Julian Barindifferent in the matter of religion; in who stood beside her, her hand in his. in fact, Madelon strongly suspected that he was an agnostic.

that he was an agnostic.

Rather tentatively, Madelon acgain she would play fair. She would give the man whose ring she was quainted Barbara with their plans, about to wear, unceasing loyalty, re and asked her to accompany them. She wanted Barbara's presence desperately, but did not wish to involve spell of his tremendous physical her in any way which might later bring upon her the wrath of Stephen

Barbara, however, laughed away her fears.

"Of course, I'll go with you. I wouldn't desert you at this time for the world. I'm not such a slave to Stephen's will as all that . . And I hope I'm not a coward.".

She was sitting on the floor before a gaping trunk, laying into it carefully folded chiffons and silks. Suddenly she stopped and dropped a heap of rosy gauze into her lap.

"How I shall hate going back without you! You've brought me youth Oxford street, an important member and laughter again. I've learned to > "Never mind," Madeion dropped kiss on the soft, dark hair. "We'll make Uncle Stephen let you come to visit me in Hawaii. As a married woman, I'M be ever so much important, and he won't dare boss me. I'll sic my husband on him," she delared, with a flash of mischief. t'll be fun having you and Ann in my own home!"

Her face darkened suddenly. "Home," she repeated softly, "Why, haven't thought of that since the day Julian and I-

She broke off and went quickly into er own room and closed the door. Barbara looked after her compassionately. She was so young to find her life in such a muddle. Strongly Barbara doubted the wis-

Mrs. work is a blessing to men, but a dom of Madelon's means of escape.
How little she knew of Chandler after all! True, he seemed charming were as bad, or worse, than Stephen handed along with his eviction papers when he was turned out of Eden.

Barbara was beginning to think of the bearing the barbara was beginning to think of the barbara was beginning to the barbara was be Suppose she should try with tend Suppose she should fingers to find a weak point in that icy reserve? Suppose she should eventually break through, and discontinuous programments bear the state of the state o over a warm, yearning heart beneath? It was spring now at home, late spring, and the forsythia would be blossoming on the terraces, and the lilacs and early roses in the garden. She would have Masters open all the windows to thenr fragrance. Wherever possible, she would dispense with heavy silks and tapestries and let in the sunlight. She wanted to see light, crisp curtains fluttering in the warm spring wind.

It was many months onths now since sh and Madelon had come away. Per haps things would be different. Per haps Lane himself had changed. Certainly, she herself had. She felt haps Lane

She awoke to a cloudless sky, and sparkling sea. The air was lader with the breath of flowers.

She was very young and lovely in some useful labor that they haven't leisure in which to consider whether they are satisfied

Mother "poor Marys" and "poor Sallys" her daughters who have to earn their living, but nowhere else will you see healthier, happier girls than you find holding down good jobs in stores and offices. Nine times out of ten the girl behind the counter is brighter, more alert and finds life a far more entertaining propo sition than does her purposeless idle sister before the counter.

Nor is the domestic woman who has to do her own housework entitled to shed any tears of self-pity on our necks. There is no more reason why a husky young woman shouldn't do her share of the work Men also accept this view of the of the domestic partnership than HOWITT—CROWLEY.

situation that labor is a curse to there is why her husband should not there is why her husband should not women, and work themselves to do his. It is no more of a hardship a silk cushion and feeds upon straw- and sat up until 11 o'clock washing and patching his clothes so that he could make a decent appearance next

> It is a significant fact that the women who fill sanatoriums and enrich nerve specialists are not the overworked, hard-driven wives and mothers. They are the middle-aged and elderly women, who have nothing to do but to canvass their systems for symptoms of every disease they read about in the magazines.

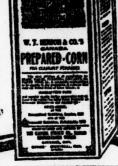

Let us hope that the time will on come when we will have enough intelligence to perceive that work is a woman's salvation even as it is a man's, and when we will congratu late the woman with a job instead DOROTHY DIX. of pitying her.

BENSONS

PREPARED CORN

Remember-no imitations in the world can equal the quality of FENSON'S Corn Starch. First in Canada 65 years ago, and still frst in quality today! Our Recipe Book FREE!

The CANADA STARCH CO, Limited

SECTION AT FAIR

Arrangements Are Being Dis- James E. Rock, 16, of Oakland, cussed For This Entry-Suggestions Offered.

The central W. I. organization of Western Ontario and the Western 16-year-old youth of Oakland, while Fair board are considering an in- driving a Ford touring car hired from hibition. A women's institute sec- distance of Teterville, had his neck tion is a possibility at the Western broken and died instantly when the car Fair.

For a number of years the women's pinned him underneath. A little girl institutes of Canada have had a with him escaped. Elijah Graves, a special and amportant place at the farmer of the district, heard the crash Canadian National Exhibition in To-ronto. So far, however, the Western found the body motionless. It is assumonto. So far, however, the western Ontario division of this dominion wide organization has had no particular place at the Western Ontario fair, which is held each year in this MacPherson's undertaking rooms at city.
It has been proposed that a re- Delhi and prepared for burial.

MRS. STANLEY McCUTCHEON, of Mosa township, who before her marriage this month was Miss Pearl George of Glencoe.

George of Glencoe.

George of Glencoe.

George of Research of Komoka, provincial vices demonstrators could be obtained from the Contario department of agriculture, to explain various phases of work on the city or province on would be neest helpful.

BROKEN NECK RESULTS WHEN AUTO DITCHES

Dies Near Teterville-Girl Escapes.

Simcoe, July 26.-James E. Rock, a eresting entry for this year's ex- the garage there, and within a short went into the ditch, and, turning over, served section at the fair be occupied by the institutes, and that a daily program be acceed by this urganization. As yet the plans are

A Flavor You'll Not Forget

WHEN you crunch one of the National Biscuit Company crisp, fresh biscuit dainties between your teeth for the first time, you'll realize that it cannot be classified as "just another biscuit". For so enticing is the flavor imparted by "Uneeda Bakers" and so wonderfully is the crispy freshness preserved by the sealing in the cartons, that National Biscuit Company biscuit possess unusually delightful qualities. Ask your grocer to show you his selection.

> Some National Biscuit Company Specialties

Zu Zu Ginger Snaps Cheese Tid-Bit Uneeda Biscuit (Soda) Chocolate Snaps

Lemon Snaps National Zwieback Peanut Snaps

This N.B.C. Uneeds seal in red appears on each end of every National Bis cuit Company package. It is your assurance that the bis-cuit within are as nurs.

Duncan, Kershaw & Co., Limited Distributors Jarvis St., Toro Main 6415