TROUBLE FEARED AT SALMO MILL

The Chinese and Japanese Now Protected by Armed

Harry Wright, M. P. P. for the Ymir district, arrived in town yesterday, not on pleasure but on business bent. He is here to see what can be done towards relieving the tension prevailing at Salmo, where a month ago 25 Japs and 18 Chinese were imported to work in the local shingle mill to the exclusion of white labor. At the time serious disturbances were averted by the calling in of provincial police, but the feeling against the Orientals is every day growing more intense and further trouble is brooding. Salmo is one of the little towns of the Kootenays where there is no love for the Chinaman or Jap—in fact, the people of the place were wont to boast that they never had or never would tolerate the presence of an almond-eyed Celestial within their boundary. Even the Chinese laundryman was unknown there. With such a sentiment prevailing, the feelings of the public can be understood when a batch of 43 representatives of the races was landed to supplant the white men engaged in and around the mill and logging camps. For days the newcomers had to be guarded by armed police, and even still they continue to be shut up on the mill premises, afraid to show themselves in public. Threats upon the lives of the men are freely made, and it is considered a moral certainty that some of them will come to grief, as they are marked men.

Mr. Wright's mission in Victoria is to see the owners of the Salmo mill, and also the Chinese and Japanese consuls, as well as the government. He fears that there is serious trouble ahead, and is anxious to avoid it if possible. If the Chinese and Japa are to remain at Salmo, and peace is to be preserved, Mr. Wright says that the police guard must be strengthened, and this he does not wish to encourage. Most of the men formerly employed about the mill are at present engaged in the neighboring mines, but they are still keeping a wicked eye on Salmo.

Emil Ankermiller, who is again this season directing the business fortunes of Nat C. Goodwin, in the pretty English comedy of "The Usurper," paid Victoria friends a visit yesterday. Mr. Ankermiller is one of the royal score of "advance men" in all America who are sure of a friend's wecome in every newspaper office. Perhaps this is a tribute to personality—but if so, the personality is a splendid plece of capital in the theatrical business. If he had not a good show, Ankermiller would probably—say so to his friends of the press. Having a good show he says so—and is to be believed. And if Ankermiller hadn't a good show it is extremely doubtful if the papers would consent to say so even upon his authority. Which goes to prove that pressmen, like advance men, are perhaps too good in their hearts for this wicked wor'd. But as usual, this time Ankermiller has an Al attraction, which he always has had to date. And the papers will joyfully do their best in assisting publication of the fact.

SPLENDID CONCERT BY FOOTBALLERS

Pleased Audience in Attendance at Y. M. C. A. Rooms Last Evening.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) The first event on the celebration pro-out at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last evening. It was the concert and presentation of cup and medals under the auspices of the Vancouver Island Football Association. There was a very large city, including many ladies. The cup association, with the name of the Garrithe cup were medals for the Island and B. C. championship, which were very handsome specimens of the goldsmith's ingenuity. The Cloverdale intermediate basketball team and the Victoria West juniors also received medals for their efforts during the season just closed.

The chair was occupied by J. G. Brown, president of the Vancouver Island Association, and on the platform with him was the Rev. W. W. Bolton, Mrs. Theberg and Mrs. Briedford. Both ladies contributed vocal selections.

Among others who took part were J. G.

Brown and L. Yorke, Sergt. Whiting,

Corps. Lockwood and Allen, the two latter giving very amusing recitations.

To Rev. W. W. Bolton fell the lot of presenting the medals and cup, and his happy remarks kept the audience in roars of laughter from start to finish. The concert was brought to a close by singing God Save The King and cheers for the Garrison Football Club.

The tramway company, under whose superintendency the fireworks will be held, are sparing no pains to make it a success and a special car service will be provided. This will give the citizen an easy way to see what will be the opening of the new park at the Gorge. On Friday there will be baseball and the firemen's races on Yates street. The committee who have had charge of the arrangements have practically finished their labors as far as they are concerned and all that is now wished for is fine weather.
