ST. ANDREW'S DAY.
The Caledonian Society is making plans for the usual St. Andrew's day celebration. As the day this year falls on Sunday the dinner will be held Monday.

CALLED TO RESTIGOUCHE.
The congregation of Restigouche, vacant since the removal of Rev. J. H. MacKay to Scotland, last June, has extended a call to Rev. B. C. Salter. Mr. Salter is a Chatham boy. He is a graduate of Dalhousie University and Halifax Presbyterian College. He enlisted in the Cycle Corps for service overseas in 1915, and has but recently returned to Canada.

NEW FIRE STATION.
The concrete basement for the new fire station has been completed and much of the building material is on the ground. The work has been retarded because of the non-arrival of special brick and steel beams, but these are expected today or Friday when the work will be rushed.
