

Campbellton, N. B., Sept. 22nd, 1921.

TO THE LADIES:—

This will be my "last" Fall Season in business. I am retiring! Leaving the Millinery line so that I can properly attend to my domestic duties. I thank my many customers who have always remained customers for year's and take this method of informing them and the general public of my decision.

Gratefully,

MRS. M. L. RUET.
(Nee) MISS BARTHE, Milliner.

FAIR BRIEFS.

The Ogilvie Milling Coy. through their local agent Charles Goss presented the Ladies' Aid Committee with a barrel of their Royal Household flour.

The "Red Rose" Tea Packers donated all the tea used and to be used at the Fair also the paper table napkins.

Mr. R. L. Hicks of the Maple Leaf Farm at Dalhousie Junction donated a bountiful supply of general farm produce. His sanitary equipment is well worth seeing. It shows just how pure milk is handled so that it stays pure. He will begin a milk delivery route in Campbellton about 1st Oct. Write or phone.

Grays' Ice Cream only, is served at the Fair.

Mrs. Sharpe's orchestra rendered some very superior music, both classic and popular melody. They are a credit to Campbellton.

Little sister was watching little brother eat piece after piece of cake, at the Fair. She said to mama—Isn't it funny how much bigger he is inside then he looks from the outside.

Several motor parties arrived from Newcastle, Bathurst, Petit Rocher and other points for the Fair, and the occupant visitors proved to be good spenders.

Every hotel in Campbellton is working overtime to accommodate the crowds almost hourly arriving for the Fair.

Retail merchants are busy here this week.

We ought to have a regular Exhibition yearly in Campbellton and a regular Exhibition building and grounds. There is none held nearer than in Chatham and the city of Quebec. Surely we could draw a week's crowd.

CAMPBELLTON SHOE SHINE PARLOR.

Will move this week to new stand on Subway st. Don't fail to call. Shoes dyed all colors. Work guaranteed. Opens at 8 a.m. and closes at 10 p.m. Saturday 12 p.m.
