Rev. John Wicks, Pastor Pres, Church, Attica, N. Y.
Mr. Edward Fabian made his first appearance on the Philadelphia Association Course last evening, and his success was certainly gratifying. He is fortunate in the possession of a full, sonorous, "rusical voice, which he uses both in song and recitation, with excellent effect. His rendering of "King Robert of Sicily" was masterly, and his humorous selections elicited outburns so of hughter and applicates of Mr. Fahian always pleases as he did last night, I have pleasure in commending him.—Chas.
