The Pulpit for February impresses us as a most commendable issue, containing complete sermons from many eminent divines of the old and new world. It is an exclusively sermonic magazine, and will be found helpful to clergymen. $2 a year; 20 cents a copy. Edwin Rose, Publisher, Buffalo, N.Y.

The Magazine of Christian Literature: The Christian Literature Co., New York. A useful periodical, especially for clergymen who, from its pages, may cull information upon the great questions of the day, both within and without the Church of England. In addition to many valuable articles each number contains a portion of the "Theological Propædeutic"—a general introduction to the study of Theology—by Dr Philip Schaff, Professor of Church History in the Union Theological Seminary, New York.

The Missionary Review of the World: We find this periodical always most useful in giving missionary information, and suggesting thought for missionary subjects. It is now favourably recognized everywhere, and has become an acknowledged authority on missionary subjects. Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 and 20 Astor Place, New York. $2.50 per year; 25 cents per single number.

The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass. This excellent weekly, well printed and beautifully illustrated, gives promise of keeping up to its usually high standard by a very brilliant announcement of articles and authors for 1892. It is always of a good moral tone and gives wholesome reading for young people of all sizes and capacity.

Germania: A. W. Spanhoofd, of Manchester, New Hampshire, publishes an interesting periodical for the study of the German language. Each number contains valuable assistance for students of that tongue.

The Churchman: New York; M. H. Mallory & Co., 47 Lafayette Place, New York. A weekly church paper, well known as one of the best church periodicals published.

Newbery House Magazine: Griffiths, Farren, Okeden & Welsh, London, England. This magazine comes every month as a welcome visitor. Its articles are usually on themes of interest to churchmen, but frequently are of a general nature, instructive for all. Numerous illustrations from time to time are found in it.

New England Magazine, Boston. The February number has articles on "The Prairies and Coteaus of Dakota," "The Granite Industry in New England," and many others which together make up a most interesting magazine.
