

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

There has been a steadily growing demand for back numbers of the series of Canadian History Readings. Though large editions of the early numbers were issued, the steady call for them has led to their being rapidly taken up. Those who wish to obtain the full series should send for them at once.

By subscribing for the whole series there will be no risk of missing any numbers. Subscribers in this way can secure back numbers, and future numbers will be sent to their address as soon as issued.

The series will be completed in twelve numbers, containing about 350 pages of reading matter of the greatest interest to students of Canadian history and geography. The most stirring incidents in our history have been selected, many of them from original papers and documents not accessible to the general reader. The result will be a unique and interesting collection which will prove of the greatest value to the student of history. Every reader of Canadian history should secure this valuable addition to his library. No teacher should fail to have one or more copies in school for supplementary reading. They are prepared with this end in view.

Among the contributors to this interesting and valuable series of historical papers are Sir John Bourinot, Jas. Hannay, D.C.L., author of the History of Acadia, Prof. Wm. F. Ganong, Rev. W. O. Raymond, Jas. Vroom, Lt.-Col. E. Cruikshank, Victor H. Paltsits, of the Lenox Library, New York, Harry Piers, of the Legislative Library of Nova Scotia, and other well-known writers of history.

CONTENTS OF THE FIRST NUMBERS OF THE SERIES.

NUMBER I.—Introduction—Physical Growth of Canada—The Legend of Glooscap—Cartier's First Voyage—Winter at St. Croix Island (Illustrated)—The Story of Lady LaTour—The Story of the Loyalists.

NUMBER II.—The Cabots and Their Voyages—The Settlement of Port Royal—Physiography of Nova Scotia—An Acadian Marchioness—A Chapter on Names—The Fort Cumberland Summons and Reply—The Siege of Penobscot.

NUMBER III.—General Coffin—Fort Cumberland—D'Anville's Expedition—Nicholas Denys' Description of the River St. John—Incidents in the Life of Lieut. James Moody—Story of the Big Beaver.

NUMBER IV.—Place-Names—French Canadian Life and Character—The Story of Laura Secord—On the Study of Ancient Maps—A Scheme for the Conquest of Canada in 1746.

NUMBER V.—The Acadian People—The Battle of Lundy's Lane—The Pennfield Colony—History in Boundary Lines—The Physiography of New Brunswick.

NUMBER VI.—The Expulsion of the Acadians—Frontenac and his Times—The War Song—The Foundation of Halifax—The Hessians—The Capture of Mackinac in 1812—Founders of Fredericton.

TERMS:

Subscription Price for the Series of Twelve Numbers..... $1.00
Price of each number (about thirty pages)..... .10
Twenty copies or more (for introduction to schools)..... 5 cents each.

All orders promptly attended to.

Sent POST-PAID on receipt of price.

Address, G. U. HAY,

EDUCATIONAL REVIEW, St. John, N. B.