

A tea-kettle of hot water

Gives enough hot water to do the entire wash when SURPRISE SOAP is used.

There's no wash boiler required.

There's none of that hot steam about the house on wash day.

This is a simple easy way of washing the clothes without boiling or scalding them. It gives the sweetest, cleanest clothes, and the whitest.

SURPRISE SOAP does it.

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

China which has been lying aside and got smoked can be cleansed by rubbing salt on it when washing it. This will effectually remove the smoke stain without hurting either the colors or the glaze.

White Marble Cake.—Two cups of white sugar, one and a half cups of butter, one cup sweet milk, five cups of flour, the whites of seven eggs, one-half teaspoon of soda, and one teaspoon cream of tartar.

Dark Marble Cake.—Two cups dark brown sugar, one cup of butter, one cup of molasses, one cup of sour milk, five cups flour, the yolks of seven eggs, two table spoonfuls of cinnamon, one of cloves, One of allspice, one of nutmeg, and one teaspoonful of soda.

To make nice split rolls take one quart of light dough, three-fourths cup of sugar, one-fourth cup of lard, and one egg; work in flour to stiffen, not quite as stiff as bread dough. When light roll out and cut with round cutter, spread melted butter on one half, turn other half over; let rise again, and bake.

Apple Fritters.—Beat two eggs, add one cupful of sweet milk and a little salt, sift a teaspoonful of baking powder into a cupful of flour, stir into the mixture slowly and add enough more flour to make a thick batter. Peel, quarter, core and chop two large tart apples, stir into the batter; have ready a kettle of hot suet, drop large spoonfuls into the fat, skim out and drain; serve hot with maple syrup.

A little camphor dropped on the handkerchief and closely held to the nose will oftimes break up a cold in its first stages.
A bit of camphor gum in the mouth, when the discharge from the nose is like water, will prove beneficial, sometimes checking the cold. Soaking the feet upon retiring and drinking a bowl of hot lemonade after one is in bed, is another "cold cure" worth trying, and aconite and belladonna—two drops of third dilution—alternated every 30 minutes for four or five others, is still another.

A housekeeper, who is the envy of her friends, says that the right way to boil eggs is not to boil them at all. First put the eggs into a wire basket with a tall handle, that saves the time and vexation of fishing them out with a spoon when cooked, then set the nest of eggs in a kettle or other vessel with cold water enough to cover the eggs—not hot water or warm water, but cold water. Set the vessel over a brisk fire. Do not let the water boil, only just "come to a boil," and at that particular time—not before nor later—the eggs will be cooked as they should be.
Remove the basket of eggs by the tall edge handle. Spread a napkin over a deep dish; lay in the eggs and fold the four corners of the napkin over them and serve. If these directions are followed exactly, the eggs when broken, will roll into the cups like balls of soft jelly, nothing adhering to the shell, the entire egg thoroughly cooked and delicate and tender through and through.

Let every enfeebled woman know it!
There's a medicine that will cure her, and the proof's positive!

Here's the proof—if it doesn't do you good within reasonable time, report the fact to its makers and get your money back without a word—but you won't do it!

The remedy is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—and it has proved itself the right remedy in nearly every case of female weakness. It is not a miracle. It won't cure everything—but it has done more to build-up tired, enfeebled and broken-down women than any other medicine known.

Where's the woman who is not ready for it? All that we've to do is to get the news to her. The medicine will do the rest.

Wanted—Women. First to know it.
Second to use it. Third to be cured by it. The one comes of the other.

The seat of sick headache is not in the brain. Regulate the stomach and you cure it. Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the Little Regulators. Only 25 cents a vial.

In the decision of momentous questions, rectitude of heart is a far surer guarantee of wisdom than power of intellect.—Farrar.

A PROMPT CURE.

Gentlemen.—Having suffered for over two years with constipation, and the doctors not having helped me, I concluded to try B. B. B., and before I used one bottle I was cured. I can recommend it for sick headache.
