LOW PRICE STOCKS IN BETTER DEMAND—MARKET CLOSES STEADY.

Montreal, March 24.

It's an ill wind that blows nobody good. The mere chance of the possibility of the Rand mines being destroyed should stimulate all of our good dividend paying mines. Such a catastrophe would naturally mean a great deal to Canada and her mineral supplies. It would immediately create an European demand for our mining stocks, and would bring in the much needed capital for development purposes. Even now British capital is alive to the fact and our securities are already favorably regarded on the other side.

Deer Trail was selling freely at 9 and 9½, close on to the 10,000 shares changing hands.

A large block of Big Three sold at 8 cents. There seems a better demand for all the low priced stocks.

Virtue was quiet at 96.

Payne sold at 132.

Knob Hill at 51 and 51½.
