

"The Blue Pencil and how to avoid it" is the title of a useful little treatise for editors and writers by Alex. G. Nevis. The price is ten cents. Published by Allan Forman, 117 Nassau Street, New York. It would save editors a heap of trouble if all contributors would get this book and study the simple rules therein.

It is reported from Rapid City Dak., that a command of cavalry was attacked by Indians, and two officers and fifty men were killed. The number of Indians killed is not known, but they were routed with great losses. It is not known whose command it was, but it is supposed to be that of Major Tupper, of the 6th cavalry and his three troops of 40 men. Troops have gone to their assistance.

Cough-Cures

Are abundant; but the one best known for its extraordinary anodyne and expectorant qualities is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For nearly half a century this preparation has been in greater demand than any other remedy for colds, coughs, bronchitis, and pulmonary complaints of all kinds.

I suffered for more than eight months from a severe cough accompanied with hemorrhage of the lungs and the expectation of death. The physicians gave me up, but my druggist prevailed on me to try

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

I did so and soon began to improve; my lungs healed, the cough ceased, and I became stout and healthier than I have ever been before. I would suggest that the name of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral be changed to Elixir of Life, for it certainly saved my life.

F. J. Olden, Sinto, Buenos Ayres.
A few years ago I took a very bad cold, which settled on my lungs. I had night sweats, a hacking cough, and great soreness. My doctor's medicine did me no good. I tried many remedies, but received no benefit; everybody despaired of my recovery. I was advised to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, as a last resort, did so. From the first dose I obtained relief, and, after using two bottles of it, was completely restored to health.—F. Adams, New Grenna, N. J.
