The Old Testament Vindicated

AS
Christianity's Foundation-Stone

BY
GEORGE GOULSON WORKMAN, M.A., Ph.D.

Author of "The Text of Jeremiah," etc.

With Introduction by

REV. CHANCELLOR BURWASH, S.T.D.

CLOTH, 50c. NET, - POSTPAID.

In this volume the author treats concisely of the leading features of the Old Testament, and answers fully the chief sceptical objections that have so often been made by rationalistic writers against the teachings of the Old Testament. By an impartial consideration of the human element, which has special features as well as special prominence in the Old Testament, he points out the way in which every fundamental difficulty may be fairly and reasonably explained. Besides answering sceptical objections the author shows the sense in which the Old Testament is an organic part of the New Testament. He also shows the ethical and religious value of the ancient Scriptures in their inner spiritual relation to Christ and Christianity. This is doubtless the first attempt yet made to give a complete answer to these questions from the standpoint of modern Christian criticism. The book is called forth by Dr. Goldwin Smith's article, entitled "Christianity's Millstone," which appeared some months ago in the North American Review.

Legislation and History of Separate Schools in Upper Canada (1841-1876).

By J. GEORGE HODGINS, LL.D.,

Late Deputy Minister of Education. Author of "Documentary History of Education in Ontario," etc.

Paper Covers, - $1.00 net, postpaid
Cloth Boards, - $1.25 net, postpaid

This valuable work is now ready, and will be read with great interest, particularly at this time when there is so much discussion in the press on the subject of Public and Separate schools.

To Methodists this book will have special interest in that it is written as a vindication of the course taken by Dr. Ryerson—than whose name none is more honored in the annals of Canadian Methodism—with respect to Separate Schools. The work deals with a period extending from 1841 to the close of Dr. Ryerson's administration, in 1876.
