My friend, if you drink intoxicating liquors, I would advise you, as your best friend, to abstain for the future and take your stand amongst those who are noted for their steadiness and sobriety, which are qualities honorable in the sight of both God and man."

The drinking habits of our country are the chief producers of crime and wretchedness of every kind, and so long as they continue we shall never, as a nation, attain any high degree of comfort and prosperity—the wail of widows and the sigh of orphans made through drink cause the whole land to mourn. Let me therefore beg of you to direct yourself of all prejudice in the matter and sign the pledge at the foot hereof, taking care to ask God to give you strength to keep it. If you do this you will never regret it; but if you still continue to drink, after this warning, there is no telling what great evils it may lead you into. Our penal settlements, our prisons, the hulks, and even the gallows itself are supplied with their victims chiefly through drink. Therefore my advice to you again is "Drink no more", but sign this

PLEDGE.

I do hereby promise to abstain from intoxicating liquors, and to discountenance their use throughout the community

A new lodge of Good Templars has been organized in Glen Orchard, Muskoka, by John E. Wilson, G. C. T., Grand Lodge of Ontario, with 28 charter members, to be known as the Medora Lodge. The following were installed as officers for the quarter: Edward Fairhall, G. T.; Sarah Duncan, V. T.; Samuel White, S.; Nathaniel Orchard, F. S.; William D. White, T.; Rev. Wilson McDonald, C.; John Orchard, M.; Maria Orchard, G.; John Harbourn, S.; Isaac White, P. C. T.; William Hanna, D. G. C. T.; We trust the influence of this lodge in this township may be felt in support of the Scott Act. This lodge is composed of such material as will in time make itself felt as a power for good in this community. All are earnest christian temperance workers.

A FESTIVE.—American guest.—Oh, what's that under the sofa? See, there it goes under the piano.

German host: Ach, dot was only the I bought to-day. He's a little playful.—The Clarion

Police superintendent "Is the gangsterously wounded?" Surgeon "Two of the wounds are mortal. But the third one can be cured, provided the man keeps perfectly quiet for at least six weeks."

"How can a worthy young man get a start in life?" This oft-repeated question worries us. We are able to think of nothing at present that gets away with the old-fashioned bent pin

A Limited Range.—Wife: "Oh, doctor, Benjamin seems to be wandering in his mind!" "Doctor. (who knows Benjamin well): "Don't trouble about that—he can't go far."—Tid-Bits

One of my little boys, whom we call Tom, asked me one day what a "wooden Jew" is. He said he had seen "wooden Indians" in front of tobacco stores, but would like to know where they had "wooden Jews." Well, I asked him where had he heard of such a he said, "In the Sunday school. The superintendent said 'I would rather do what was right, wooden Jew.'" S.S. World.

"GENTLEMEN of the," jury said an Irish lawyer, "it will be for you to decide whether the defendant should be allowed to come into court with unblushing footsteps, with a cloak of hypocrisy in his mouth, and draw three bullocks out of my client's pockets with impunity."

MAGGIE (to her husband, who has just joined the volunteer force) "Man, Jock, ye'll mak' a grand sojer: I believe the smell o' powder would mak' ye rin for yer life." "Well, woman, said Jock, "dinna ken: but after standin' your battery as lang I think I could face a hale regiment mysel noo." New York Weekly Witness.

LITTLE WILLIE had been very devoted to a certain pretty young lady at the beach. One day a gentleman came upstairs to the drawing-room of the hotel after dinner, with the young lady on his arm. Ah, Willie! see I have Miss X. —to-day!" you, said the gentleman. Little Willie threw both arms round arms round the young lady's neck and and kissing both her cheeks, exclaimed triumphantly: Well, you daan't do if you have got her on your arm.!" —Epoch.
