THE SAILOR'S BIBLE.

After a heavy storm at sea, a sailor's chest, which had been swept from some wrecked vessel, was cast on shore. On opening it, a Bible was found, on the fly-leaf of which the following lines had been pasted With the Bible was a photograph—evidently that of the sailor's mother. We would suggest that a Bible, with the lines copied on the fly-leaf by a mother's hand, and accompanied by a photograph, would be the best of New Year's to sons at a distance from home.

Remember who gave thee this, When other days shall come; When she who had thy earliest kiss Sleeps in her narrow home. Remember, 'twas a mother gave The gift to one she'd die to save. That mother sought a pledge of love, The holiest for her son; And from the gifts of God above, She chose a goodly one; She chose for her beloved boy The Book of light and life and joy; And bade him keep the gift, that when The parting hour should come, They might have hope to meet again In an eternal home. She said his faith in that would be Sweet incense to her memory. And should the scoffer in his pride Laugh that fond faith to scorn, And bid him cast the pledge aside That he from youth had borne; She bade him pause and ask his breast, If he, or she, had loved him best? A parent's blessing on her son Goes with this holy thing; The love that would retain the one Must to the other cling. Remember, 'tis no common toy— A MOTHER'S GIFT! remember, boy!
