SADLIER & CO'S. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A NEW WORK.

BY MRS. SADLIER.

JUST PUBLISHED, 'THE BLAKES AND FLANIGANS.' A Tale illustrative of Irish Life in the United States.

Although this Work has only been published a few weeks, the first edition of two thousand copies have already been sold.

'In its permanent and corrected form, we wish 'The Blakes and Flanigans' a place in every household, and we could not wish an Irish household a better guide, or a more accurate social chart, of the dangers and temptations with which they especially have to combat in this state of society.'

'We earnestly hope it may find a place in every Catholic household, and that it may be carefully read by every Catholic father and mother in the Province.'

'We are indebted to the publishers for a copy of this Work, which, like all Mrs. Sadlier's writings, can be read with interest and profit.'

'Mrs. Sadlier has been the successful authoress of several pleasing stories published heretofore, and we have no doubt, that the Work the Sadliers have just published will add to her reputation.'

'Independent, however, of the principle which it inculcates, the story is interesting and well-told, and is of a nature to please persons of all creeds and countries. Like all other Works of the Sadliers, the typographical execution is splendid.'

'We can assert that it is one of the most useful books of the day, and the most pertinent to the circumstances in which we are now placed with regard to religious education.'

'The accomplished Authoress has put the Catholics of America under a strong obligation by this most excellent Work, the best ever written by her. We wish it to be wide spread.'

'The tale is well written and graphically told, and maintains the high position Mrs. Sadlier has already attained in the world of letters.'

NEW EDITIONS.

The BEST and CHEAPEST CATECHISM for Schools and Families published, is the 'DOCTRINAL AND SPIRITUAL CATECHISM.'

By the Rev. Pere Collot, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Sadlier. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This is considered by competent judges as the most complete, and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been offered to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to memory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully explained.

We know that this work requires only to be known to secure for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following prices: 12mo., 440 pages, half bound, 1s 10d; muslin, 3s 6d; to schools and colleges, we will put them at 4s 6s per hundred.

NINTH EDITION:

AN ORIGINAL TALE,

'NEW LIGHTS; OR, LIFE IN GALWAY.' A Tale of the New Reformation. By Mrs. J. Sadlier. Illustrated with 3 engravings, 443 pages, 18mo. Cloth, 2s 6d; Cloth, gilt, 3s 9d; Cloth, full gilt, 5s.

The Six Volumes of the Library published, are the most interesting as well as the most useful Catholic Books yet issued from the American Press.

THE FIFTH EDITION—C. VOL.

FABIOLA; OR, THE CHURCH OF THE CATACOMBS. By His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman. 12mo. of 400 pages; cloth, extra, 3s 9d; gilt, 5s.

The Press of Europe and America are unanimous in praise of this work. We give a few extracts below:—

'Eminently popular and attractive in its character, 'Fabiola' is in many respects one of the most remarkable works in the whole range of Modern Fiction. The reader will recognize at once those characteristics which have ever succeeded to identify one illustrious pen.'

'Worthy to stand among the highest in this kind of literature.'

'Were we to speak of 'Fabiola' in the strong terms our feelings would prompt, we should be deemed extravagant by those who have not read it. It is a most charming book, a truly popular work, and alike pleasing to the scholar and general reader.'

'We would not deprive our readers of the pleasure that is in store for them from the perusal of 'Fabiola'; we will therefore refrain from any further extracts from this truly fascinating work. We know, in fact, no book which has, of late years, issued from the press, so worthy of the attention of the Catholic reader as 'Fabiola.' It is a most charming Catholic story; most exquisitely told.'

The following notice of the Work is from Brownson's Review for October, 1855:—

'The style in which this volume is presented to the public does great honor to the publishers. The engravings are well executed and selected from the best models. Like all Mrs. Sadlier's translations, it is carefully and correctly translated. One can read it without having the thought of its being a translation continually before the mind. The Abbe Barthe's Meditations on the Litany of Loretto, also translated by Mrs. Sadlier, greatly enhance the value of this volume. We most heartily commend it to all those who wish to possess the most valuable Life of the Blessed Virgin which has appeared in this country.'
