"When a person is seriously ill," says the N. Y. Catholic Review, "don't wait until his agony has commenced before summoning the priest to give him Extreme Unction. It is good for the health of the body as well as for the life of the soul. It may bring about his recovery. On the other hand, don't call the priest to give the last sacraments when there is not the slightest danger of death. Some thoughtless person bring the clergyman out of his bed at midnight in the worst of weather to the bedside of invalids who have been ill for weeks and who will survive for months. This is not so bad as rushing for him when too late, but it is bad enough to stop."

Says the Calgary Herald:—There is an interesting quarrel on between the Winnipeg Free Press and a Winnipeg clergyman, Rev. John Hogg, a Presbyterian pastor. Mr. Hogg has been attacking the Free Press in his pulpit and in the press. He alleged that the Free Press was under Roman Catholic influence and proprietorship; that he knew this to be a fact of his own knowledge, and that the public know it as well. The Free Press has given the statement the most prompt denial and has challenged Mr. Hogg to the proof. Mr. Hogg must, of course, make good his charge or withdraw it. There is no other alternative open to him. The public are anxious as to the outcome of this interesting duel.

THE REV. FATHER LACOMBE, O. M. I., the celebrated Indian missionary, preached in French at the 8 o'clock mass at St. Mary's on Sunday last, to a large and appreciative congregation. The Rev. Father's sermon was applicable to this holy season, Christmas and the New Year. The Rev. Father Fox, P. P. preached at High Mass, and expressed his earnest prayers for all blessings and graces as the members of his flock during the coming year. He also alluded to the deaths that have taken place in St. Mary's parish during the past year, and to the deaths of other notable persons throughout the world.

We are glad to learn that Mr. A. F. Martin's fourth child is gradually growing stronger, and reasonable hopes are entertained of her complete recovery. At one time it was feared that she would not get over the terrible sickness which carried off her three elder sisters. Seldom has a family been called upon to endure such a sore trial as has Mr. Martin's, and the public sympathy which has been evoked has been deep and sincere. The Northwest Review extends its deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Martin and Family in this hour of deep affliction, and trust that a kind providence may comfort and assist them in bearing up under it.

A VERY interesting time was spent last Tuesday evening at the Roman Catholic chapel, when the children, old and young were made "happy." The entertainment opened with an exhibition of chemical properties of water, as seen by experiments conducted by Father Kavanagh, of St. Boniface College, assisted by Master Bertie Ryan. These experiments were extremely interesting, and they lasted about half an hour. After that the children had their innings in the way of recitations, songs, instrumental music, &c., and at the end a well laden Christmas tree. The congregation seized the occasion to testify to their esteem for their beloved Pastor Father Sinnott, who generally officiates, by presenting him with a nice easy chair. A suitable reply was made by the recipient, and the evening's programme was at an end. All the children felt like crying out "encore, encore," and it is likely the response will take place in due time.—Portage la Prairie Saturday Night.

Christmas at the Home.
A very pleasant time was enjoyed at the Home for Incubables last Monday night through the kindness of outsiders, who could find time amid the rush of the festive season to think of others beside themselves. A tree delighted the eyes of the inmates, and the fact that they had an interest in it, and that somebody had an interest in them, was a great comfort. The furnishing of the tree was due largely to the Catholic congregation, per Father Sinnott, the Dorcas Society, and Y.W.C.T.U. of the town. On Wednesday afternoon Father Kavanagh kindly entertained them for an hour and a half with chemical experiments, and Misses Haggarty and Pike gave some nicely chosen readings and recitations. Gladnich; corresponding secretary, M. E. Hughes; librarian, T. Coyle; assistant librarian, P. McNamara; marshal, C. B. Graham; guard, J. Flynn; board of trustees, M. E. Hughes, G. Gladnich and E. R. Dowdall.

Let Us Know.
Local newspapers are often accused of bias in regard to giving personal notices—of mentioning the coming and going of some, omitting others. The fault is with the people and not with the reporter. He is always willing and even anxious to tell who comes and who goes, if he can find out, but a weekly newspaper cannot afford a dozen salaried reporters and ten the duty falls to one. If you have visitors let us know who they are and where they came from; if anything of interest happens in your vicinity let us know about it; if there is a party or ad "about" at your house furnish us with the particulars; if you get married let us know; if you die we trust your friends will let us know; if you are blessed with an addition to your family let us know; if you know anything let us know about it. You will always find us ready to "notice" one as another, patrons or otherwise, friends or foes, of the latter we do not want any. We are here to accommodate all and give the news.

GOLDEN JUBILEE
Of the Rev. Damase Dandurand, O.M.I.
On Wednesday last, the 28th inst., the Oblate Fathers celebrated the Golden Jubilee of the Venerable Father Dandurand, the first Canadian to join the Missionary Fathers of Mary Immaculate in this part of the world. Father Dandurand was already a priest when he offered himself to become an Oblate; thus his Golden Jubilee in the sacerdotal state was solemnly observed in Ottawa last year. The Church of St. Mary's was on fete last Wednesday for this auspicious and very unusual event. The Venerable Father himself sang the High Mass, being assisted by Fathers O'Dwyer and Perrault, O.M.I. In the Sanctuary we noticed the Rev. Fathers Camper, Maisonneuve, Fox and McCarthy, O.M.I., and the Rev. Mr. Cherrier, P.P., of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. In the Choir were the Rev. Fathers Allard and Campeau, O.M.I., who sang the beautiful hymn for the Oblation at the Offertory, and Mrs. George Germain who gave the "Quid Retribuum" after the Communion.
The following were invited for the dinner in the Presbytery of St. Mary's: His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface; Rev. Father Allard, V.G., O.M.I.; Rev. Father Camper, Vicar, O.M.I.; and the following Oblate Fathers: Maisonneuve, Baudin, McCarthy, O'Dwyer, Perrault, and Campeau, not forgetting the venerable Jubilarian Father Dandurand. Brother Boisrime, O.M.I., Fathers Hudon and Drummond, S.J., Dom. Benoit, the Prior of the Trappist Fathers, and the following members of the Secular Clergy, Messrs. Richot, Cherrier, Messier, Philion, Joly, Dufresne, Giroux of St. Anne, Giroux of St. Boniface, Cloutier, Rocan, Lajeunesse, and Gauthier.
A Doney Bible, magnificently illustrated, was presented to Father Dandurand by the Rev. Father Camper, on the part of the Oblate Fathers of this Vicariate, as a memento of his Golden Jubilee.
On Thursday the Rev. Father Dandurand returned to his Mission of St. Charles, on the Assiniboine, of which he has been the highly respected Pastor since his removal from Ottawa several years ago, and where, we trust, notwithstanding his long life of heavy and interrupted labour, he may be spared to preside over his flock for many more years to come.
