or treat as a nullity the order of the learned Master in Ordinary (in winding-up proceedings, allowing the action to be brought), for any of the alleged grounds of irregularity. The plaintiff has found it necessary to ask leave to amend his statement of claim, and he may amend as proposed in the memorandum filed. He also has leave, if advised, to add the insolvent company as a party plaintiff. The defendants' applications are, with this exception, dismissed. As success is divided, costs will be in the cause to the successful party. T. Hislop, for the defendants.
W. A. Lamport, for the plaintiff.
