

ARTICLE 16
AIRLINE REPRESENTATION

- (1) Each Contracting Party grants to the designated airlines of the other Contracting Party, on the basis of reciprocity, the right to maintain in its territory their representatives including office, administrative, commercial, and technical personnel as may be necessary for the requirements of the designated airline concerned according to the laws and regulations of the Contracting Party in whose territory the representatives are being maintained.
- (2) These staff requirements may, at the option of the designated airline or airlines of one Contracting Party, be satisfied by its own personnel or by using the services of any other organization, company or airline operating in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and authorized to perform such services in the territory of that Contracting Party.
- (3) The representatives and staff shall be subject to the laws and regulations in force of the other Contracting Party, and, consistent with such laws and regulations, each Contracting Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity and with the minimum of delay, grant the necessary employment authorizations, visitor visas or other similar documents to the representatives and staff referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.
- (4) Both Contracting Parties shall dispense with the requirement of employment authorizations for personnel performing certain temporary duties not exceeding ninety (90) days.
