Canada's commercial fisheries

... made, over the years, the
... of an assistance to developing countries in fisheries
... development projects. This assistance has been obtained
... both internally (nation-to-nation) and externally (through international ... institutions). The Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) and
... minister's Canadian assistance to developing countries and, in the case of
... fisheries projects, it obtains technical support and advice from the Department
... of Fisheries and Oceans.

Examples of Canadian fisheries support include:

Senegal, where Canadian experts have been visiting national fisheries
... staff on the techniques of fisheries zone patrol and surveillance. Since 1971,
... CIDA has been helping Senegal's Centre for Assistance to Small Scale Fishing
... in a project to improve the quality and distribution of fisheries projects.

Peru, where at the request of the Peruvian Ministry of Fisheries, CIDA
... funded research by Canadian scientists on the anchovy, a valuable species
... whose sharp decline threw the Peruvian industry into a crisis.

The Philippines, where CIDA has assisted St. Lucie in developing a long ... term plan for fisheries development and has funded the construction of locks,
... cold storage facilities, ice-making equipment and other facilities.

Southeast Asia, where CIDA has supported the work of the Association
... of Southeast Asian Nations in reducing poaching and improving
... control and inspection systems.

Zambia, where CIDA has been involved in providing technical assistance
... to important fish farming centres with an annual investment to get their fish to market.
... (Aqua-CUP), a Canadian non-governmental organization, is assisting
... economic development in Zambia and the region.

Other areas, including Canada's fishing industry, CIDA is helping
