

RECIPIENT	PROJECT TITLE AND DESCRIPTION	AMOUNT CONTRIBUTED
The Marquis Project and Pueblito Canada Brandon, Manitoba and Toronto, Ontario	Joint Project entitled: "Youth Exploitation: Involving Local Youth in Building Foreign Policy". Program of research and consultations, to be conducted in Ontario and Manitoba, involving students, NGOs, labour, academics to develop policy alternatives on the issue of child labour exploitation.	$32,000
Tom MONASTRYSKI Canadian Bureau for International Education Ottawa, Ontario	Symposium entitled: "Canadian Foreign Policy in Ukraine: A View from the Ground".	$2,500
Ainé COSTIGAN Interagency Coalition on Aids and Development Ottawa, Ontario	Development of Canada's international HIV/AIDS policy. Program of research and broad-based consultation on updating Canada's global HIV/AIDS policy with goal of enhancing Canada's capacity to contribute to fight against AIDS epidemic, through ODA and foreign policy generally.	$20,000
Marjorie MACLEAN Canadian Institute of the Arts for Young Audiences Vancouver, B.C.	Education program for children: "Young Ambassadors: Youth to Youth Forum on Peacebuilding". A three-part program involving (i) creation of classroom study and teachers' resource material on Canada's international relations (ii) a youth forum on peacebuilding at the 29th annual Vancouver International Children's Festival focused on coping in zones of conflict from a child's perspective and producing policy options, and (iii) Youth Ambassadors report back to their classes.	$20,000
Lynne GEISEL Global Change Game Winnipeg, Manitoba	"Collecting Youth Perspectives on Canadian Foreign Policy", a component of the Global Change Game, a travelling role-playing exercise on international affairs for students.	$13,500
Prof. Ronald DEIBERT Department of Political Science University of Toronto Toronto, Ontario	Policy paper on "Internet Threats to State Security: Canadian Foreign Policy Options" to analyze potential threats of Internet to personal and public security, including long term threats to cultural identity and national values, medium term, i.e. terrorism and extremists, and short term threats to public and private computer infrastructures (viruses and other sabotage).	$10,000
Evan POTTER, Ed. Canadian Foreign Policy Journal Ottawa, Ontario	Book project on "Cyberdiplomacy", including perspectives of public administration, communications and foreign policy communities, to assess the impact of information technologies on international relations.	$10,000
Dr. Walter DORN Science for Peace University of Toronto Toronto, Ontario	Policy options paper on "Improving the Early Warning Capacity of the UN". Research to assess current UN early warning capacity, potential for cooperation with other bodies such as NATO, OSCE, OAU and NGOs, and applications of new technologies for enhancing early warning.	$20,000
Dr. Susanne SCHMEIDL Centre for Refugee Studies York University North York, Ontario	Support for conference on "Synergy and Early Warning".	$5,000
Debbie GRISDALE Physicians for Global Survival (Canada) Ottawa, Ontario	Research and consultations to examine legal implications for Canadian foreign, trade and defence policy of the Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice (ICJ) on the legality of the threat or use of nuclear weapons.	$20,000