

also participates in the staffing of the SHAPE Air Defence Technical Centre in the Netherlands and the Anti-submarine Warfare Centre at La Spezia in Italy.

Canada and NATO

Canada has, therefore, carried out its commitments to NATO in both the military and non-military fields. At the same time, along with other member countries, it has emphasized that NATO must remain outward-looking, and in particular, as the North Atlantic Treaty itself says, that NATO must carry on its work in a manner consistent with the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations.

RP/C