"121I. (1) A company may apply to the chief justice or acting chief justice of the court in the province in which the head office of the company is situated, or a judge of such court designated by either of them, for an order

- (a) permitting the amount of the sales or gross revenue referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 117 to be omitted from the income statement,
- (b) permitting the information referred to in section 120A to be omitted from the financial statement of a company, or
- (c) exempting, in whole or in part, a private company that is subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section 121E from the application of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 121E.

(2) The judge may, upon such terms and conditions as he may impose, permit such omission or grant such exemption, in whole or in part, when he is satisfied that the disclosure of the information required by any of the provisions referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) would be seriously and unfairly detrimental to the interests of the company but, in so deciding, the judge shall have regard to the interest of the public in having disclosure of the information.

(3) A company shall give the Minister not less than ten days notice of any application under subsection (1) and the Minister is entitled to appear by counsel and to be heard thereon.

(4) An interested person may appeal to the appellate court of the province in which the head office of the company is situated from any order made under subsection (1)."
