

Speaker—Con.

Rulings and statements—Con.

Bill—Con.

Third reading

Amendment to which merely refers the bill back to the committee so that the committee can reconsider certain questions which have already been considered but which the committee has power to consider again under our procedure, allowed to stand, 150-52

Not to be considered as a precedent, 155

Amendments to which are beyond the scope of the resolution and the terms of the bill declared out of order, 154

Debate on must be confined to the bill itself, 4163, 4170

Committee report

Cannot be discussed until it is before the house, 3903-04

Concurrence, unanimous consent required for at this time, 1221

Committees

Amendment to widen powers of not in order, 1686

Member cannot discuss at this time what took place in committee, 3915

Proceedings in, referring to, 2336

Debate

On question voted on this session may not be revived, 4163

On this subject at this time, cannot be allowed without unanimous consent, 4161

Documents, tabling, 297, 479-80

Imputing motives. See under this title, Member/Members

Interruptions, 1572

Question cannot be allowed without members' consent, 1796-97

Irrelevance, 784, 815, 995, 1638, 1939, 3081, 4166, 4172

Member merely making a reference, 1027

No reference in the motion to setting up a standing committee . . . if the house feels that the member should be allowed to make these representations there is no objection, 1690-91

Language

Uncomplimentary, withdrawal of, 3825-27

Unparliamentary, 1074

"Contemptible type of politician", 1792

"Coward", 1846

Speaker—Con.

Rulings and statements—Con.

Language—Con.

Unparliamentary—Con.

"Dishonest", 1846

"Past master at underhand campaigns", 1792

Should be brought to Speaker's attention at the time (it is used), 1793

"Stupid", not to be used again, 4174

Letters, source must be disclosed, 455

Member/Members

Asked to co-operate in carrying out the business of the house in accordance with standing orders, 299

Discussing matter which has been referred to a committee, not in order, 2107

Imputing motives should withdraw in view of the fact that the member referred to is not here, 2136

(May not refer) to another debate . . . if it took place during this session . . . , 2330, 2354

Must accept statement of another member in connection with a matter which is peculiarly within his own knowledge, 3826

Not to refer to Senate debates, 1659

Reference to party discipline, 1058

Requested not to discuss at this time what took place in committee, 1638

Should accept statement of the hon. member, 3913

Ministerial statements, 345

Questions, on, 16

Motion for production of papers, not within power of Speaker to enforce, 1650-51

Noise behind the curtains, 868

Orders of the day, questions on, 156, 1402

Latitude given, 841

Not urgent, might be asked on the estimates, 2498

Quoting newspaper dispatch, 1522

The minister decides whether the question should be answered now or later, 2044

Which should be asked on the departmental estimates, 1547-48

Which should be placed on order paper, 204, 250, 659-61, 841, 886, 1989

Point of order

Ruling not given until point of order arises, 1069

There cannot be two points of order before the house at the same time, 1439