

Adjournment Debate

ideas as to who might serve on the board. The fact that he wants to see people appointed to this local board is, in itself, an admission that we are on the right track. While he did not exactly compliment us on it, I am sure that is what he meant when he talked about suggesting names for members of the board.

We think it makes unique use of the entrepreneurs and business people in Northern Ontario. We are going to attach significant importance to the advice we receive from the advisory board. We want this board to advise the Minister of Regional Industrial Expansion (Mr. Côté) on specific program elements which will include the topping off or enriching of existing government programs so we specifically meet the problems and particular needs of Northern Ontario, which we all realize has been ignored by the previous Liberal Government. I am sure my colleague would join me in those sentiments.

There is a great deal more I could say. I have as much time as you have, Mr. Speaker. I know you would like to hear all of this.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): I would appreciate hearing about it but I think we will try it again another time.
