Unwreath. The letter w is never sounded when preceded by r. Upon. "I shall call of (upon) him," is very common but very barbarous. Urban dean. Ecclesiastical jurisdiction over ten churches in the city. Usage. An Irish magistrate, during the Protectorship, wrote it without a single letter of the original—yowzitch; averring, if rebuked, that nobody could possibly spell with pens made from the quills of Irish gecse.

The original, "goulites, avering, if reduced, that notedy could possibly spen with pension made from the quilts of Irish geese.
Use. Commonly put in the present for the past tense, as—"He use [used] to say so," Usher. Because introducing the scholars to learning. Corruption of hulssier.
Uswer. Much abused by ignorant people, alded and abetted by small authors. V, seldom varies, and is never mute. Londoners are apt to exchange it for so. Vague. The barbarisers of this word quote ague as an authority. Vail. Sir Josh. Reynolds pnid his servant 6l. a year, but offer'd him 1001. for the door. Valet: val.t, a servant. Fashionably val.ta. Anciently a youth under 18 years.

Family vaults were not allowed until the 12th cent; burying in cities about 300, not churches till many ages after. Vegetable. For 1600 years, even after the deluge, mankind lived entirely on vegetables.
Vegetable. For 1600 years, even after the deluge, nunktud lived entirely on vegetables. Vegetable. The in twain, Mat. 27,-51: holy of holies curtain, of blue, purple & scarlet. Vendeans. Their refuse are the choarans (x. choarts, a small owl) those fight by day, but these by night; and are thought little better than snugglers changed into banditti.

but these by night; and are thought little better than sinuggiers changed into banditti. Veneer. (ve-near). Commonly, and by the trade generally, pronounced finneer. Penerable. "The very venerable (reverend) Archideacon Cambridge." When indica-tive of age, or the respect it bears, venerable is well chosen; but if intended, as I suspect,

For a term of distinction, is most absurd and out of place. Venice. Originated the word agio; difference between cash and paper money. Its bank (the first) was established 1157; (their paper issues are called banco] that of Genoa 1345; Amsterdam 1609; Hamburgh 1619; Botterdam 1635; England 1694; Scotland 1695; and France 1716. America has full 600.
